Grand Knight's Report

Brothers all,

We had a few degrees this past month. Let's all welcome our newest members, Ray Barish, Andrew Augustine, and Dean Wade who received their 1st degree on January 5th. Andrew, Ray, and Dan Barrett received their 2nd degree as well on January 12th. A special thanks to our degree teams for wonderful, solemn presentation (team captains Ernie DiCicco and Joe Devlin). I would also like to congratulate our newest 3rd degree brothers, Dan Barrett and Jim DiRienzo. They completed their degree on January 15th held at LaNeve's in Haledon. Also in attendance to show their support were Dennis Mok, Steve Sammarco, Joe Mitru, Tom Rohe, Joe Barrett and his father (that's 3 generation of Barretts). Congratulations!

At the conclusion of the degrees, the Grand Knight usually has a short time to make a few comments. I presented to our new Brothers that the Council has a lot of activities to offer and that they should try out a few to see what they like. You can get a lot out of volunteering, but you have to get involved. I think this is a good reminder to us all. There are a lot of people that need our assistance, and it's a wonderful feeling to be able to provide the help. Please don't sit idle; come to a meeting, pick out an event in the Newsletter calendar, help out with bingo, or suggest a new activity.

I would also like to commend the Council for their excellent work in setting up and hosting the reception for the Bishop and Tom Ciborski on January 3rd to celebrate Tom's receiving the St. Gregory the Great papal award. There was also a lot of help from the Rosarians and other parish members, but the Council took the lead in organizing, purchasing, and cooking a fine breakfast. Men, I am proud of all of you!

Lastly, we wish Father Bob happiness and success in his new position as pastor at St. Patrick's in Chatham. We thank him for his support and guidance over the last 12 years. It is sad to see him leave, but I think we all feel proud that the Bishop has chosen him to help the parishioners of St. Patrick's who truly need Father Bob's strength as they recover from the tragic passing of Father Hines. Father Bob, we love you and we will miss you.

P.S. Brothers, as you may already know, Father Bob will be celebrating his last Mass on Sunday, February 7th before he leaves for St. Patrick's in Chatham. There will be a reception in the parish center from 1:30 to 3:00. To show our appreciation to Father, as pastor and Council chaplain for the last 12 years, I would like to have a portrait of our council with Father Bob that he can keep with him to remember his time with us.

Please plan to be at the front of the church at 1:15 PM on Sunday, February 7th. It would be great if we can have a huge group portrait. It's supposed to be nice and sunny on Sunday... please wear a jacket and tie if possible.

Thanks. Vivat Jesus,

Dave Teller, Grand Knight

Thoughts from Our Chaplain

Brother Knights,

Although it is a disappointment to me and Jet fans throughout the area that the JETS did not make the Super Bowl, preparations for Super Bowl Sunday are still in order as this winter festivity is a terrific time to be together with family and friends in that the Super Bowl is a great excuse for a winter party. Most people who follow football know that one important facet in a football game is the two-minute warning. This occurs as a time out is called with two minutes remaining in either half of a football game so that a particular strategy may be implemented for the final minutes of playing time; therefore each team maintains a moment to reflect and rest for those final 120 seconds that often determines the difference between winning and losing. This week the church celebrates the 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time, which becomes the final two minutes of the Season of Ordinary Time that precedes the holy season of Lent, which begins on Ash Wednesday. It is advantageous to use this time well so that preparations are made for Lent that become activated upon the beginning of the season. A spiritual "two minute warning" renders opportunity to take time out with thought to the goals of this Lent, which consists of prayer, almsgiving, and sacrifice that calls an individual to improve personal shortcomings as well as make better personal strengths. This prepares a person to put a plan into action in that it is so common for people of faith to rush into Lent without reflection that leads to mistake Lent for a season of self-congratulations due to accomplishments or sacrifice. The main thrust of Lent is to disarm Christians from complacency.

There is a story about a family who was startled in the middle of the night when the smoke detector in the house went off. The parents jumped up from bed, and shouted to their children to hurry out of the house. Once outside, the father and mother started counting and discovered that one child was missing; which is the worse fear of a parent. Looking up at the house the couple saw their son near the second floor window trapped by the flames. The father dropped to his knees praying that God would save his son; while the mother, a person of deep faith, but, a practical person ran to her neighbor's garage, yanked a ladder from the garage wall, propped it up against the house, and rescued the boy from the flaming house. People often expect God to make them better throughout Lent by reciting repeated formulas of prayer and devotions; however, like the mother in the story, Lent is more than dropping to our knees in hope that God does the work. Lent requires ongoing determination, effort, patience, sacrifice, and a goal. Ash Wednesday invites believers to take a step away from spiritual complacency, and climb a ladder for forty days that rescues those who are without God in their lives, or in search of finding God. Ashes, a powerful symbol of humility and repentance, which is a sacramental in the church, get placed on the forehead of Catholics with the reminder that everyone is a bit different than a year ago; therefore, repeating past Lenten observances may take a believer up a ladder to a house that no longer exists, which prevents spiritual growth from taking place. Lent summons people to climb a ladder of opportunity so that there is awareness of personal shortcomings that are a natural and accepted part of life. The Gospel for the First Sunday in Lent always brings forth Jesus' temptations in the desert. Temptations are wants for the "wrong things" or the want for something that a person is not suppose to have or take. In following the steps that Jesus did in resisting temptation, the Christian gains strength and builds self-discipline so that endurance is attained and good is accomplished. Perhaps the greatest temptation that people face in Lent is to do nothing, or to do the same thing that is done every Lent.

The early church envisioned Lent as a time that non-members prepared for "Baptism." This concept challenges the faithful of today to work on faults and short-sightedness so that the renewal of Baptismal vows on Easter is recited in a state of readiness. The two minute warning prior to Lent permits the Christian to ponder a style of life that sees things in a Christ-like manner, which navigates a person toward greater closeness to God. Jesus maintained a balanced lifestyle that integrated prayer and sacrifice with human interaction; hence, Jesus recognized the proper time to be on his knees in prayers such as in the Garden called Gethsemani, and the proper moment to rescue those in houses burning with sickness, poverty, and sin. This makes Lent the fitting season to do as Jesus, and learn the greater meaning of his message to heal, forgive, love; and raise others to new life, which leads to a Super Bowl victory.

Jonathan Swift once stated that many people have enough religion to hate but not enough to love. Even though there are seventeen days to Lent, this Sunday sounds the two minute warning. As a lion's share of football games are determined through the strategy and play during the final two minutes, take time to ripen your game plan for Lent, and prepare for this holy season. Work hard to transform any anger or hate to love. Lent thrusts forth unanticipated moments whereby the fire alarm goes off with God calling you to a burning building. The person who is ready for the season sees it as right-minded to grab a ladder from the neighbor's garage and come to the rescue of someone in need; while the person who does not stop to reflect at the two minute warning wonders the reason for unanswered prayers.

In Christ's Love,

Fr. Bob

Insurance Message

Tax Time Again

This month, I chose to pass up the opportunity to use the age-old cliché about two things we must do... although timing should certainly bring it to mind.

This season, in most homes, is financial accounting time. I'd like to wager that, at some point in the process, someone will ask (probably you!) "Where did all our money go?" Surely, all of the money we earn finds a home somewhere... the grocer, the mortgage, the tax man. Very little, if any, is left over for a personal bank account or other investments. Most of us consider ourselves fortunate if we've managed to pay our bills! Folks usually save what's leftover... and for the most folks, that's nothing.

The point is, whatever the amount earned, chances are good that it is spent providing for and rearing a family. Think about that for a minute. The needs of that family continue – food, shelter, clothing, even if the breadwinner suffers an untimely death.

So what does income tax have to do with insurance? Simply this... it can serve as a reminder that protection for dependents should include an estimate of the current needs for money. While it may be convenient to say "I can't afford it," that's probably not accurate – when you consider that your family will be without any income should you die.

With this in mind, your Order has designed a plan which guarantees to continue income to your family for as long as they will need it. What's more, this plan will enable you to systematically save some of those dollars so difficult to account for at tax time.

Call me today at (973) 527-4904 for an appointment. I want to hear from you.

And lastly pray to the Blessed Mother for World peace.

Editor's Notes:

Get More Involved – As we enter the month of February the calendar shows that we are a Council with a hearty appetite for charitable and fraternal work. We have a wide range of activities, either in progress, or planned for the near future. Every activity needs chairmen and committee members. If you are not already as active as you should be, you can see where the opportunities are. Attend the next Business Meeting on Wednesday, February 10th at 8:30 pm to become more involved in the Council's good works.

Cost of Newsletters – Last month it cost the Council over $160.00 to print and mail the January newsletter. Currently it costs $0.40 to print and $0.212 to mail each newsletter. With the Council's membership growing this cost can only go up. The Council's website (see below) has a link that shows the latest monthly newsletter. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 249 newsletters were mailed, 49 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far twenty-three brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website. If any member would like to only receive their newsletter in this fashion please let me know and I will remove you off the mailing list.

Dear Brother Knights – My wife Jackie and I wish your wives, mothers, grandmothers, daughters and other female members of your families a very Happy Valentine's Day.

Knights of Columbus on the Internet

For those Knights who like to visit cyberspace here are the following web sites on the Internet to get information about the Knights of Columbus. They are:

Supreme Council Website - (<http://www.kofc-supreme-council.org>) Site consists of various webpages telling about who we are, how to join, up-to-date news of the Order, information, history, photographs and more.

Knightsite - (<http://www.knightsite.com/kofc.htm>) Site consists of a directory of over 120 individual web pages: a web page for each U.S. State and Canadian Province, The Vatican website and the Supreme Council Website; how to pray the rosary and various other pages of interest to Brother Knights.

New Jersey State Council – (<http://www.njkofc.org>)

Council 6100 - has it's own e-mail address. Among the things on the web page are the latest Council Newsletter, the Business Meeting highlights and the Council Calendar for the next two months. It can be found at kofc6100.org or (<http://home.att.net/~dicicco-highfield/Kofc6100.htm>.) It can also be found as a link under the St. Jude Parish website: www.stjudeparish.org.

NOTICE – As another means of relaying news about the Knights of Columbus, Council 6100, etc., it is requested that all knights having e-mail addresses provide them to me at my e-mail address listed here: (buckalew@ptd.net). Sometimes the telephone tree does not always work because members are not at home and do not have an answering machine. This way if any news has to get out fast, an urgent e-mail message can be sent to all those who have provided us with their e-mail addresses.

Sam's Club Membership Update

Brothers,

We have reached the limit of our current membership and are no longer able to add new members due to expired and invalid accounts. The council has authorized the creation of a new membership account to replace the existing one as per Sam's Club recommendations.

We opened a new account on August 1st, as our current membership expired on August 23, 2009. Current members will have first right to join until the current membership expiration date. Then, the new membership will be opened to other council members who wish to join. The maximum number of members per account is 100, which includes the council member and another person of the council member's household. If we reach the limit on our new membership, then a new 2nd membership account will have to be considered and authorized by the council before any other brothers may join.

Please contact me for the slip you will need to present to the Sam's Club membership desk to join under the new account number.

On the Lighter Side

BIG EVENTS BEFORE CHRIST

3050 B.C. – A Sumerian invents the wheel. Within a week, the idea is stolen and duplicated by other Sumerians, thus inventing the first business code of ethics.

2900 B.C. – Egyptians create the Sphinx and several other modern construction miracles. Pundits christen it all one big pyramid scheme.

1850 B.C. – Britons announce Operation Stonehenge a success after randomly placing stone slabs into a sufficiently meaningless pattern, thus securing centuries of employment for European historians.

1785 B.C. – First calendar introduced by Babylonian scientists.

1784 B.C. – Calendar concept tweaked after Babylonians experience winter in July.

776 B.C. – World's first known use of money occurs in Persia. The following day sees the world's first known use of counterfeit money.

525 B.C. – The first Olympics are held in Greece. Turkey enters a six footer with a moustache in women's shot put event.

410 B.C. – Rome ends the practice of enslaving debtors, removing single biggest obstacle to development of the credit card.

404 B.C. – The Peloponnesian War enters its 27th year because neither side can find a treaty writer who can spell "Peloponnesian."

214 B.C. – Tens of thousands of Chinese people complete the 1,500-mile long Great Wall. Neighbor's dog gets through.

1 B.C. – Calendar manufacturers argue over what to call the next year.

Other Council Activities

Bingo – Phil Graziano is the new Bingo Chairman. The Council is still in dire need of a few 'Good Knights' to adequately staff our bingo teams. I hope the Council will help fill the voids now present on all bingo teams. If a few 'Good Knights' with nothing to do one Friday evening per month would volunteer their time between 6:30 PM and 11:30 PM (only five+ hours per month), we would be able to fully staff our four bingo teams. If you can not volunteer five hours per month, perhaps you could volunteer a few hours of your time per month. If you can volunteer in any way please call Phil at (908)979-3375 or e-mail: philgraz53@comcast.net.

Coffee N' – Is held on the first Sunday of every month after the 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 Mass. Council 6100 will host the Coffee N', in the months of February, May, August and November. Brother Tom Rohe has agreed to run the next few Coffee N's but we will need to have a few brothers to step up and help Tom to run these Coffee N's. The job entails shopping for the needs of the day, organizing the work schedule for the day and just getting the job done. If you can help in any way please let Tom know, (973-426-9394).

Campbell Soup Label Collection – Brother Victor Farina is collecting Campbell Soup labels as a donation to acquire books from the Library of Congress for the Blind and Disabled. Bring your labels to the next Business Meeting for Victor.
