Attention Brothers – Council Going “Green”

The Council would like all brothers who have a computer and internet access to get their newsletters electronically. Brothers who do not have a computer will still be able to get a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to them.

When I started as newsletter chairman in 1996 it cost the Council roughly $70.00 to print and $30.00 to mail the newsletter each month. In December it cost the Council $157.11 to print and mail the newsletter. Currently it costs $0.40 to print and between $0.284 and $0.352 to bulk mail each newsletter. With the Council’s membership growing this cost can only go up. The Council cannot afford this expense every month. The yearly cost is approximately $3,000.00. Wouldn't it be better to spend some of that money on charitable causes?

Grand Knight Dave Teller has granted a two month extension to Council members to inform me either by regular mail, e-mail or telephone how they would like to receive their newsletter. Newsletters will not be mailed to members after February who don't respond to this request.

The Council's website (www.kofc6100.org) has a link that shows the latest monthly newsletter in pdf format. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. If you provide your e-mail, you will receive a reminder when the new newsletter is posted.

Thus far 75 brothers have opted to get their newsletter from our website or by mail. Please send your preference to: Gregg Buckalew, P.O. Box 157,

Tranquility, NJ 07879; e-mail address: buckalew@ptd.net; or telephone (908-852-9184).

Grand Knight's Report

Brothers all,

I would like to start out this new year by thanking everyone in the Council for all their hard work and dedication to Charity, Unity and Fraternity. We have a lot to be proud of. A short list of activities that come to mind are:

- Blood Drives
- Drive for people with Mental Disabilities
- Clothing Drives
- Coffee Ns
- Council & District Free Throw contest
- Parish Center Roof
- Operation Chill Out
- Paragon Village (senior center)
- Pride in Priests Dinner
- Baby Bottle Boomerang
- RSVP program
- Scholarships
- Eyes for the Needy
- Thanksgiving food & donation (local)
- VA Meals (Lyons Hospital)
- Memorial Day Parade and Picnic
- Fishing Trip
- Support of Squires

I would especially like to thank the officers and committee chairs for all their "behind the scenes" work. And a very special thanks to Guy, Joe, and Gerard for updating the Council's financial reporting and handling the tedious job of documenting all our monies. The Council could not function without the dedicated commitment to the day-to-day tasks that have to be done. Thanks Brothers!

I'm not one for New Year's resolutions. I figure that if something needs to be done differently, there's no reason to wait. So what do we need to do now? There are more and more worthy causes these days and I am sure we agree that we want the Council to be in position to help. Consider volunteering for an activity or fund-raiser. If you already do, great! How about just a little more? It's kind of like running a long race, after the first mile you say to yourself, "I'm really tired, but maybe just a little bit more." After another 1/2 mile you say "I'm doing OK still, just a little more." Pretty soon, you have finished a 5K! The Council can always use more help and especially project chairmen or co-chairs. Being a chairman isn't that difficult or scary. It mostly requires a little organization and a few phone calls, but it is so important to being successful.

Also, think also about helping with bingo. Many times this last year, I've implored the Council to volunteer at least one Friday a year. Gentlemen, we still need help, so I am asking again. No experience is required. New members, seasoned members, all are needed. The race is a long one, and the money we make from Bingo allows us to be financially equipped to help.

As we start the new year, remember what we are all about, Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism. Let's strive to do a little more for those that need us the most.

Have a blessed New Year.

Fraternally,

Dave Teller, Grand Knight

Chaplain's Corner

All Aboard!

Each year since 1998, the students and faculty at the University of Montevallo in Alabama have convened to consider the value of a liberal arts education in the United States. Their convocation, called the "Life Raft Debate," offers the following scenario as its impetus for discussion: There has been a nuclear war and the survivors are setting sail to rebuild society from the ground up. A group of academic types are vying to secure a place on the raft, and only one seat remains. Each professor presents an argument as to why his or her discipline would be indispensable to building a new civilization. Because the professors are arguing not only for their field of expertise but for their very survival, the debate is charged with urgency and can become quite heated. When all have presented their arguments, the audience votes and the winner climbs onto the raft, waving goodbye to the others.

At the outset of this new year of 2011, our praying community of Saint Jude might take a cue from the Montevallo experience. Imagine that we are traveling together into the year ahead as passengers on a life raft crafted by God. Our place on the raft has been secured by Jesus, who has suffered and died and risen from death so that we might live. Unlike the professors at Montevallo, we do not need to argue for a place on the raft; our safe passage is God's gift.

Nevertheless, none of us is required to remain; we are free to jump off at any time and face the future on our own. For those who are wise and humble enough to remain on the raft of grace and salvation, it will soon become clear that the passenger list has been decided by none other than God. As we become acquainted with our travel companions, it will also become clear that no one has been excluded from that list save those who choose to exclude themselves. Indeed, as the raft sails on and the new year unfolds, the sacred texts will reinforce the inclusivity and universality of the motley crew God has chosen to sail with and to save.

On every Sunday of January, the ancient authors will repeatedly affirm the truth that God's raft of life and salvation has a place for gentiles as well as Jews, for all the nations as well as Israel and Judah. Through the several visions of Isaiah, the vision of Zephaniah and the letters of Paul, we will be reminded that while the Jews were God's chosen ones, the salvation of the rest of humankind was not an afterthought. Rather, the Jewish people were privileged to be guides and mentors whose sacred traditions prepared them for recognizing Jesus as messiah and for sharing that insight with the rest of the world.

Because this is a lesson that is still being learned and has yet to take hold in every heart, we who call ourselves Christian might take the opportunity of this new year 2011 to examine our own attitudes toward those who are different, foreign or otherwise at the fringes of what we might judge as acceptable. If there is sufficient room on God's life raft for all peoples, who are we to withhold our welcome and acceptance? During his ministry, Jesus reached out to all, despite legislation and traditions that dictated otherwise. Later, but not without struggle, the early church slowly began to wrap their minds around the astonishing concept that "in every nation, whoever is in awe of God and acts justly is acceptable to God". They began to understand and tried to realize the challenge of Paul, that there be no divisions among believers but that all be united in the same mind and purpose.

In order to meet these challenges, the early believers in Jesus were invited to cultivate a new spirit and a new mindset. This new way of thinking and being and acting had been recommended by the prophets, but was fully embraced by only a humble remnant. These had been willing to find their security nowhere else but on God's life raft, to which they clung through many rough seas and threatening storms (infidelity and sin, wars, exile). When Jesus came among us, he embodied this spirit of humble but bold dependence on God and recommended this spirituality to his followers. He pronounced as blessed the poor, the meek, the merciful, the peacemakers and the persecuted. These have learned to rely on God for every breath and every blessing. These are willing to face all that lies ahead this year, content to cling to God's life raft rather than sail first-class on a luxury ocean liner. How will you navigate the year ahead? All aboard!

From myself and the staff of St. Jude Parish, we wish all the knights and their family members a Happy and Holy New Year.

In Christ's Love,

Father Joe

Deputy Grand Knight's Report

We are at a very challenging crossroad with our Council. Council 6100 has a reputation for being there when someone is in need. I for one am very proud of our charitable work. This is something we excel at and people know it!

However, concerns are being raised by the officers of the council about our ability to sustain the level of income that will support our charitable work. The economy is taking its toll on our council as well as almost every organization. Unfortunately (or probably better to say fortunately) we don't have the government printing press where we can use money that isn't there.

I know what you're thinking and yes I am going to mention our biggest fund raiser; BINGO. Council 6100 is as dependent on Bingo as the US is on foreign oil.

Bingo is in dire need of an infusion of manpower. We are fortunate that we have a core of brothers who are there week in and week out, and several more who will jump in when needed, but this is just not enough. We need to lighten the load for them. All we ask is for about 4 hours per month on a Friday evening. Don't worry, we have callers, but we need more brothers to man the register, work the kitchen or sell pull tabs. If you can't make the whole evening, we could use your help opening up at 6:00. We also need a few of you who are home during the day to help with the set up. Please let Brother Phil Graziano (908-797-0079) know that you are available and he will make sure you get put on a team. And yes... we will feed you that night!

*Remember bingo provides our council with the overwhelming majority of our income. If we can't get people there to work, we are running the risk of going out of business, which then means we won't have the funds to support the first principle of our order, Charity.

Besides bingo, we also need to look for other ways to raise money. I know that out of the 300+ members we have there are a few of you who might just have a few ideas that can be used to bring in some money. Now's the time to step forward... if you have an idea please let the Grand Knight or me know.

Grace, Daniel, Carolyn and I want to wish you and your family a very blessed Christmas and New Year.

Joe Barrett - Deputy Grand Knight

Council Magazine Fundraiser

Brothers,

By now most of you have heard about the new Magazine Fundraiser that Council 6100 is running in conjunction with St. Jude Parish. In these difficult economic times we have looked at many ways to minimize the impact on our community as we seek ways to raise funds. We think the Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it is easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or dicicco-highfield@att.net

Insurance Message

Your Business Belongs Here

Do you know that the Knights of Columbus can offer you IRAs and Keogh Plans (US), RRSPs (Canada)? Do you know enough about them to decide whether or not they fit into your financial picture?

I would like you to answer three questions: 1) Are you, like most people, interested in saving money? 2) Do you find it difficult to save under common saving methods? 3) Take the number of years you've been working times your average salary. What percentage of that income have you saved so far? How much will you save in the future?

If your answers bother you, I would like the chance to sit and talk with you (and your wife, of course) about our alternatives – annuities and tax-sheltered savings at highly competitive interest rates. You need not look anywhere else but your own Order for your financial needs. Other institutions bombard you with ads for business at this time of year. We just keep doing what we have been doing since father McGivney, founder of the Order – taking care of our members and their families.

Call me today at (973) 579-7224 for an appointment. I want to hear from you.

Editor's Notes:

Get More Involved – As we enter the month of January the calendar shows that we are a Council with a hearty appetite for charitable and fraternal work. We have a wide range of activities, either in progress, or planned for the near future. Every activity needs chairmen and committee members. If you are not already as active as you should be, you can see where the opportunities are. Attend the next Business Meeting on Wednesday, January 12th at 8:30 pm to become more involved in the Council's good works.

Cost of Newsletters – Last month it cost the Council $157.11 to print and mail the December newsletter. Currently it costs $0.40 to print and between $0.284 and $0.352 to mail each newsletter. With the Council's membership growing this cost can only go up. The Council's website (see below) has a link that shows the latest monthly newsletter. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 215 newsletters were mailed, 15 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far seventy-five brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website or by mail. All members have to inform me by the end of December how they want to receive the newsletter.

On the Lighter Side

'Twas the Month After Christmas

'Twas the month after Christmas, and all through the house
Nothing would fit me, not even a blouse.
The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I'd taste
At the holiday parties had gone to my waist.
When I got on the scales there arose such a number!
When I walked to the store (less a walk than a lumber).
I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared;
The gravies and sauces and beef nicely rared,
The wine and the rum balls, the bread and the cheese
And the way I'd never said, "No thank you, please."
As I dressed myself in my husband's old shirt
And prepared once again to do battle with dirt –
I said to myself, as I only can "You can't spend a winter disguised as a man!"

So – away with the last of the sour cream dip,
Get rid of the fruit cake, every cracker and chip
Every last bit of food that I like must be banished
"Till all the additional ounces have vanished.
I won't have a cookie – not even a lick.
I'll want only to chew on a long celery stick.
I won't have hot biscuits, or corn bread, or pie,
I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.
I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore –

But isn't that what January is for?
Unable to giggle, no longer a riot.
Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!

Other Council Activities

Bingo – Phil Graziano is the head of the Bingo Committee. The Council is still in dire need of a few 'Good Knights' to adequately staff our bingo teams. I hope the Council will help fill the voids now present on all bingo teams. If a few 'Good Knights' with nothing to do one Friday evening per month would volunteer their time between 6:30 PM and 11:30 PM (only five+ hours per month), we would be able to fully staff our four bingo teams. If you can not volunteer five hours per month, perhaps you could volunteer a few hours of your time per month. If you can volunteer in any way please call Phil at (908)979-3375 or e-mail: philgraz53@comcast.net.

Coffee N' – Is held on the first Sunday of every month after the 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 Mass. Council 6100 will host the Coffee N', in the months of February, May, and November. Brother Tom Rohe has agreed to run the next few Coffee N's but we will need to have a few brothers to step up and help Tom to run these Coffee N's. The job entails shopping for the needs of the day, organizing the work schedule for the day and just getting the job done. If you can help in any way please let Tom know, (973-426-9394).

Campbell Soup Label Collection – Brother Victor Farina is collecting Campbell Soup labels as a donation to acquire books from the Library of Congress for the Blind and Disabled. Bring your labels to the next Business Meeting for Victor.
