Attention Brothers – Council Going “Green”

The Council would like all brothers who have a computer and internet access to get their newsletters electronically. Brothers who do not have a computer will still be able to get a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to them.

When I started as newsletter chairman and editor in 1996 it cost the Council roughly $70.00 to print and $30.00 to mail the newsletter each month. Last month it cost the Council $155.29 to print and mail the February newsletter. With the Council's membership growing this cost can only go up. The Council cannot afford this expense every month. The yearly cost is approximately $3,000.00. Wouldn't it be better to spend some of that money on charitable causes? The Council's website (www.kofc6100.org) has a link that contains the monthly newsletter from July 2009 to the latest newsletter in pdf format. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 215 newsletters were mailed, 15 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far eighty-nine brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website or by mail. That leaves approximately 200 members who haven't informed me how they want to receive the newsletter. Please send your preference to: Gregg Buckalew, P.O. Box 157, Tranquility, NJ 07879; e-mail address: buckalew@ptd.net; or telephone (908-852-9184).

Grand Knight's Report

Brothers all,

It was a beautiful, warm, summer evening in February as our Council hosted the first annual "Beat the Winter Blues" beach party. Over 80 brothers, wives and friends gathered on Saturday the 12th in the St. Jude Parish center enjoy some barbeque and refreshment, and lots of fun. Uncle Warren (Wormann) emceed the evening and got everyone involved in dancing, a hula-hoop contest, a limbo contest, and impromptu sing-a-longs. There was even a volleyball game. Rich Pellito and Carl Franciose, manned the grill, and scores of brothers helped with the setup/cleanup of the beautifully decorated hall. What a great night. Everyone had a blast, and it was a perfect remedy for the long snowy days. A big thanks goes out to our DGK Joe Barrett who initiated, planned and coordinated the event. Speaking for those that attended, we look forward to next year's party.

In previous articles, I have spoken to the Council about getting involved, mostly concerning volunteering. This month, I would like to emphasize another part of being an involved Knight... being involved with the direction of our Council. As I stand in front of the Council at our meetings, we very often read motions that have been proposed by the Officers. Most of the time there is very little discussion or debate. As a little insight into our Council's process, the Officers meet once a month to discuss donation requests usually received in the mail/e-mail or requested verbally. We also discuss upcoming events, usually based on last year's calendar, but sometimes we hear about something new (like the beach party.) The Officer's decide on what items need to be brought before the Council, and usually agree on amounts. These are, of course, just proposals. It is always up to the Council on what events we run and how much we spend or donate.

That's where you need to get involved. As Grand Knight, I don't want the officers or myself deciding what the Council does. I need your help. It is absolutely necessary (and expected) for you to voice any concerns or ask any questions at our Business Meetings. If you think we are spending too much money, or you have a different idea, I welcome your voice. Please just raise your hand and you will be recognized. We are all brothers, and it is OK to disagree. Remember, nothing is a done deal until you vote and the gavel goes down.

The Trustees have just completed our semi-annual audit, and our finances are solid. However, it is clear that over the last several months, we have spent a little more that we have taken in. We have a small money market account that allows us to maintain cash flow during the ups and downs, but we need to keep an eye on spending. Our biggest fundraiser, bingo, has not generated the expected revenue and is trending downward. We are considering ideas to address the low number of players and ways to increase our margins. So until that starts to pick back up, I ask you to get involved at the meetings and help us decide if we're spending appropriately. And we still need workers. I have mentioned this in almost every newsletter, and I am sure that you are getting tired of hearing it. Less than 10% of our members are helping. Get involved!

Dave Teller, Grand Knight

Chaplain's Corner

My Dear Brother Knights:

"I've got your back!" With these words, friends, family members and colleagues reassure one another of their constancy and support, particularly in difficult times. Police officers who find themselves in danger, military personnel on active duty in a war zone, ordinary citizens oppressed by extraordinary challenges — all these might say it to each other. "I've got your back" means: You are protected. I stake my life on that promise! "I've got your back" says you will not be alone to face whatever life may bring.

Three men, finally enjoying their retirement, were worrying about what their grandchildren might say about them 50 years from now. They were afraid they had not taken enough time to be good grandparents. The first man said, "I would like them to say, 'He was successful in business.'" "Fifty years from now," said the second, "I want them to say, 'He was a really good grandfather.'" The third declared, "I want them all to say, 'He certainly looks good for his age!'"

We spend a lot of our life worrying about things we have no control over. Why can't we just “let go and let God”? The Gospel reading for today warns us, “Let tomorrow take care of itself. Today has troubles enough of its own.” If we truly have faith that our loving God will take care of us, then our life will take care of itself. And, after we’re gone, everyone will say, “This was a person of great faith.”

On a really nice day, this is a really nice Gospel. When Jupiter aligns with Mars and your biorhythms are up, you can really enjoy the birds and lilies and you can giggle about tomorrow. But if you hear this Gospel after losing your job or hearing that your wife loves someone else or that your child is on drugs, then you wonder which parallel universe Jesus lives in. We know that the body is more important than what it eats or wears; but does he know that the body will not survive if it doesn’t eat and wear something? And has he never seen carefree birds frozen in the snow? But he has one thing right: Each day does have enough trouble of its own.

When we force Jesus to face reality, when we shove his face in ordinary life, we feel better — maybe even slightly superior, maybe enjoy our misery now with his deflated company. But as usual, when we rain on somebody’s parade, we feel guilty for having snatched someone from the jaws of joy. We begin to think: Jesus is a nice person, and if he has today under control and tomorrow in the bag and a Father to take care of his every need, then good for him. But what is this holiness he says will give us everything we need? That is a fair question. But since Jesus has not been certified as incompetent but rather is proclaimed the Son of God, maybe a better question would be: Why have we not learned what he learned from everyday living?

Missionaries, after decades of doubt about their methods, finally learned that people cannot think about God when they are starving. What clamoring needs in us block out the better things? What brute fears filter out the delicate nuances? What primitive passions strangle the civilized part of us? Most of us are fed and clothed well enough to think of God as a possibility. Most of us have a firm enough purchase on life to consider holiness an option for us. Our basic problem is not all the basics, but the secondary level of human needs: the need to have friends, to feel secure, to be useful, to feel worthy. It is difficult to trust somebody called God if you can’t trust anybody else. It is hard to feel loved by God if you feel unlovable. Still, we have to get on with life. Enough with excuses, enough of being saddled with the past, no matter how painful.

Today is the day to unmask our hidden needs and deal with them. If we have never learned to trust, we need to stick our neck out. If we have not been befriended, we need to become a friend. Today is the day we break down our defenses. This day, we are mature enough to make mistakes, to cry, to be misunderstood, to accept our real self.

Jesus urges us to stop preparing for life and start living life. Our life does not start tomorrow; it is already going on — and moving fast. But we are stuck on “three to get ready.” We keep getting better prepared so we can finally get it right. We even have preschool preparedness tests. How could one possibly get prepared for pre-kindergarten? Womb clinic? Many of us have a terrible fear of failure. We have a neurotic need to keep practicing our life before we take our show on the road. All wrong. Jesus says that the finding is in the losing; the living is in the dying. And most important of all, he says not to worry. His Father has already given us the kingdom — ready or not.

Sincerely,

Father Joe

Rev. Joseph Orlandi

From the Deputy Grand Knight's Desk

Brothers,

It just seems like last week that I was putting together my thoughts for the newsletter. I know February is a short month, but it seemed like it was only two weeks long. Don't look now, but Spring is only a few weeks away.

"The Beat the Winter Blues Beach Party" was a success. Approximately 90 people attended and enjoyed themselves by dancing, hula-hooping and doing the limbo. We had such a great turnout of Brothers helping out that evening that I don't want to mention names individually in fear that I might forget someone. Without their help this would have been a disaster!

Finally, I want to remind everyone that elections will be coming up in a few months. If you are interested in an officer position, please let the trustees know.

Council Drive for People with Developmental Disabilities

Brothers,

As we have done every Spring, the council will be participating in the Drive for People with Developmental Disabilities as part of the statewide Knights of Columbus Annual campaign for the year 2011. We will be out in force on April 29th - May 1st in front of some of the most frequented stores in Mount Olive, handing out Tootsie Rolls and collecting donations. As the chairman of this event, we are looking for volunteers. And, because of the huge scale of this event, we are calling on the entire Council to help out. There are several ways to participate; as a team captain, a caller, or as a collector.

Team captains are part of the planning team and will be responsible for the brothers working at a site. Callers will help contact brothers to staff the sites, and most importantly, collectors will stand in front of stores (in pairs) and collect donations in 2-hour shifts. From our experience in past drives, this is a great opportunity to spend time with a brother, friend, son, or daughter and at the same time, collect money to help those in our community that need the most help.

Please volunteer for this wonderful cause.

You may contact me and let me know how you would like to help.

Thank you,

Joe Barrett - Deputy Grand Knight

Invitation to Pray With Fellow Brothers and their Families

Brothers - All are invited to pray Evening Prayer in the Daily Chapel at 7:00 p.m. each Sunday. This time of prayer and meditation is only for a half-hour.

Evening Prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray always" (Luke 18:1; see also 1 Thessalonians 5:17). Through this prayer, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and prayers of intercession for the needs of the world.

Council Magazine Fundraiser

Brothers,

By now most of you have heard about the new Magazine Fundraiser that Council 6100 is running in conjunction with St. Jude Parish. In these difficult economic times we have looked at many ways to minimize the impact on our community as we seek ways to raise funds. We think the Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it is easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or dicicco-highfield@att.net

Insurance Message

Retirement Balancing Act

Think of retirement as a three-legged stool. In order to maintain balance, you need all three legs... or there is a real possibility of a crash!

One leg consists of the benefits the government offers you. Debate rages about the viability of future benefits, and my best advice is to stay tuned to the discussion and make sure you are aware of what is planned for those benefits. Any change in future promises should be accounted for when we get to the third leg.

The second leg is your company's pension plan, either defined benefit (such as a traditional pension: you work so many years and the company provides you with so much monthly benefit) or defined contribution (such as the popular 401K plans). Some of these plans, particularly traditional ones, are under stress, have been frozen or pared back. Learn how yours works; read the plan description; stay on top of the news coming from the company. On the 401K side, become a good investor. Teach yourself the fundamentals of good diversification and know how much you have and when you will need it.

Finally, the third leg is the saving you do yourself, and this is the only aspect you can control completely.

Everyone needs this third leg. It consists of the money you personally set aside on a disciplined basis to help in retirement. You don't directly control government benefits and you don't directly manage your company's pension plan, but you must manage your money and your life.

Establish a retirement plan of your own. Here at the Knights of Columbus, you can open a retirement annuity for as little as $300. Consistent and disciplined savings placed into that annuity over time can guarantee you an income that you cannot outlive at retirement. That's right – guarantee you an income you cannot outlive. That really will provide you with peace of mind.

As you ponder all the things that may not work out as you proceed toward retirement, think about the one thing you can do to help yourself. It's reasonably priced, guaranteed and controlled by someone you trust: you!

Call me today at (973) 579-7224 for an appointment. Call me – let's talk. I want to hear from you.

Editor's Notes:

Get More Involved – As we enter the month of March the calendar shows that we are a Council with a hearty appetite for charitable and fraternal work. We have a wide range of activities, either in progress, or planned for the near future. Every activity needs chairmen and committee members. If you are not already as active as you should be, you can see where the opportunities are. Attend the next Business Meeting on Wednesday, March 9th at 8:30 pm to become more involved in the Council's good works.

On the Lighter Side

Grandpa's Hands

How's this for a wonderful way to remember the picture of Dad's hands? This is good. I'll never look at my hands the same!

Grandpa, some ninety plus years, sat feebly on the patio bench. He didn't move, just sat with his head down staring at his hands. When I sat down beside him, he didn't acknowledge my presence and the longer I sat, the more I wondered if he was OK. Finally, not really wanting to disturb him; but wanting to check on him at the same time, I asked him if he was OK.

He raised his head and looked at me and smiled. "Yes, I'm fine. Thank you for asking," he said in a clear strong voice.

"I didn't mean to disturb you, Grandpa, but you were just sitting here staring at your hands and I wanted to make sure you were OK," I explained to him.

"Have you ever looked at your hands," he asked. "I mean really looked at your hands?"

I slowly opened my hands and stared down at them. I turned them over, palms up and then palms down. No, I guess I had never really looked at my hands as I tried to figure out the point he was making.

Grandpa smiled and related this story: "Stop and think for a moment about the hands you have, how they have served you well throughout your years. These hands; though wrinkled, shriveled, and weak; have been the tools I have used all my life to reach out and grab and embrace life. They put food in my mouth and clothes on my back. As a child, my mother taught me to fold them in prayer. They tied my shoes and pulled on my boots. They have been dirty, scraped and raw, swollen and bent. They were uneasy and clumsy when I tried to hold my newborn son. Decorated with my wedding band, they showed the world that I was married and loved someone special. They trembled and shook when I buried my parents and spouse and walked my daughters down the aisle. They have covered my face, combed my hair, and washed and cleansed the rest of my body. They have been sticky and wet, bent and broken, dried and raw. And to this day, when not much of anything else of me works real well, these hands hold me up, lay me down, and again continue to fold in prayer. These hands are the mark of where I've been and the ruggedness of my life. But more importantly, it will be these hands that God will reach out and take when he leads me home. And with my hands, He will lift me to His side and there I will use these hands to touch the face of Christ."

I will never look at my hands the same again, but I remember God reached out and took my Grandpa's hands and led him home.

When my hands are hurt or sore, I think of Grandpa. I know he has been stroked and caressed and held by the hands of God. I, too, want to touch the face of God and feel His hands upon my face.

Other Council Activities

Bingo – Phil Graziano is the head of the Bingo Committee. The Council is still in dire need of a few ‘Good Knights’ to adequately staff our bingo teams. I hope the Council will help fill the voids now present on all bingo teams. If a few ‘Good Knights’ with nothing to do one Friday evening per month would volunteer their time between 6:30 PM and 11:30 PM (only five+ hours per month), we would be able to fully staff our four bingo teams. If you can not volunteer five hours per month, perhaps you could volunteer a few hours of your time per month. If you can volunteer in any way please call Phil at (908)979-3375 or e-mail: philgraz53@comcast.net.

Coffee N’ – Is held on the first Sunday of every month after the 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 Mass. Council 6100 will host the Coffee N’, in the months of February, May, and November. Brother Tom Rohe has agreed to run the next few Coffee N’s but we will need to have a few brothers to step up and help Tom to run these Coffee N’s. The job entails shopping for the needs of the day, organizing the work schedule for the day and just getting the job done. If you can help in any way please let Tom know, (973-426-9394).

Campbell Soup Label Collection – Brother Victor Farina is collecting Campbell Soup labels as a donation to acquire books from the Library of Congress for the Blind and Disabled. Bring your labels to the next Business Meeting for Victor.
