Attention Brothers – Council Going “Green”

The Council would like all brothers who have a computer and internet access to get their newsletters electronically. Brothers who do not have a computer will still be able to get a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to them.

The Council's website (www.kofc6100.org) has a link that contains the monthly newsletter from July 2009 to the latest newsletter in pdf format. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 208 newsletters were mailed, 8 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far ninety-eight brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website or by mail. That leaves approximately 200 members who haven't informed me how they want to receive the newsletter. Please send your preference to: Gregg Buckalew, P.O. Box 157, Tranquility, NJ 07879; e-mail address: buckalew@ptd.net; or telephone (908-852-9184).

Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

I can't believe it's already November. It seems that it was just yesterday that we were dealing with 90+ temperatures and cutting grass...now the prospects of cold and snow are just around the corner.

November is one of the busiest months for Council 6100. Take a look at our program calendar and you will see what I mean. The Coffee And, clothing drive, Patriotic Mass and Reception, Pride In Priest Dinner are just a few of the things happening around St. Jude and the Council. Now throw in the Thanksgiving holiday and you can see what I mean. And then right after that comes December which is another hectic and crazy month.

I want to welcome Jack Sherry and Michealangelo Russo to Council 6100. These new Brothers completed their 1st and 2nd Degrees on October 23rd. I also want to thank the members of the 1st and 2nd Degree teams for what in my mind were two of the best degrees that our Council has conducted in the time I have been a member.

Even though 2011 has been a rough year for some of us, we really do have a lot to be thankful for. Over the past few months I have seen several instances where many have stepped up to help a Brother Knight in need. Between the economy, rainfall and other factors that we cannot control, it is very important that we continue to look out for each other. Thankfully we have and I pray that we continue to do so. If you are aware of a Brother in need, please let me know.

Grace and I want to wish each and everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving.

PS---- we could always use a few more Brothers at Bingo....

Vivat Jesus!

My Dear Brother Knights:

Let Evening Come
Mary is a companion for all the stages of a mother's life
By Melissa Musick Nussbaum

St. Jerome tells us that Mary was a promised one. Her mother was Anna, her father, Joachim. They were barren. Then an angel came first to the sorrowing Joachim and then to the sorrowing Anna, bringing them glad news. The angel said, "God has heard your prayers. Anna will bear a child, a daughter, and you are to name her Mary. She will be filled with the Holy Spirit from her mother's womb. She will serve God all her days."

Like most of my friends, even women who are not Catholic, I feel close to Mary. Our children have grown and left home. We look to Mary for grace in all the leave takings parenthood demands and for courage as our children set out on lonely and sometimes perilous paths. We learn from Mary what it means to be a mother to a child, and later, to be a sister in Christ to the same child grown.

But these days I wonder about Mary less as Jesus' mother than as Anna's daughter. Did Anna grow old in her daughter's house? Did Mary care for her mother as age robbed Anna of sight and hearing and sense? Did Mary ever wonder at a child gone so soon and a mother lingering so long?

Tradition says that as Mary lay dying, the apostles gathered at her bedside. They came from all over the world. Those who had died rose up from the grave, a gift from God to the woman who had borne him. The apostles, living and dead, kept vigil and watched as Mary was taken into heaven, the flesh that had cradled the Christ never falling into corruption and decay. It is as if God understood Mary's grief at the cross and sought to spare her further sorrow. She would die, but she would not be alone and she would never know the darkness of the grave into which her beloved child was laid.

That was Mary's death, but what of Anna's? Who was at her side? Who kept vigil with the mother of the Mother of God? Was this another sorrow to pierce Mary's flesh, a sorrow unrecorded and so unremembered?

I walked into the memory care unit where my mother lives now. She was shuffling along, gripping the bars of her walker. An aide had her arm around my mother's narrow shoulders. Before I could call out to her, she looked up and saw me. Turning to the aide, she said, "That's my mother."

Her mother, her comfort, had come. My mother and I don't talk much anymore. I rub her shoulders and her back. She is bony and thin. I have to be careful not bruise her skin, skin that lays across her nerves and muscles like a creased and threadbare cotton sheet, so worn from repeated washings that the fabric is translucent and prone to tears. I rub her head. Since we stopped many of the medications she used to take each day, her curls have returned. Silver tendrils cover her head and I run my fingers through them as I did when I was a child and she let me brush her thick, dark locks. I say, "Your curls are back!" She says, "They are?" and touches her hand to her scalp. She smiles. She has forgotten so much, let so much go, but that small vanity remains. An aide or a visitor walks into the room, and my mother says, "Look. My curls are back."

I rub her arms and hands with cream. I rub her legs and feet with lotion. Her legs are swollen from the fluid an exhausted heart can no longer expel from her body. Her feet are blue from lack of blood. Her toenails are thick, yellow plates, impossible to cut or trim without special tools. It is as if the weight and heft of her skin has slid down to her toenails and hardened there, in a mockery of health and strength. I massage it, all of her ruined flesh, and consider as I do that she carried me once and delivered me into the world.

And I think of Mary. Scripture and the tradition are silent about Anna's last years. Still, I imagine her anointing her mother's dying body as she anointed her son's dead one. The mother, who became the first and truest daughter of her son, becomes the final, faithful mother of her own. There is a fabric holding the world. It is a sturdy net and a sheltering cloak, woven by love.

As Mary cared for God — weaving, weaving — so God in turn cared for Mary. I do not believe Mary's mother Anna — or any of our mothers, or any of us — are cast out from its folds and its embrace. And here, again, always, Mary is my model and my companion on the way. In her poem "Let Evening Come," Jane Kenyon writes: Let it come, as it will, and don't be afraid. God does not leave us Comfortless, so let evening come.

Yours in Christ, your chaplain

The Council Is Ready for Football!!

Once again, Council 6100 has come through to help make this year's "FootballMania" fundraiser a huge success. Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we've sold over 100 tickets, we're guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we'll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

Please contact me at: jmitru@verizon.net, or call me at: 973-598-0282 and I'll answer any questions you have.

Please visit our very own CharityMania Website:

<https://www.charitymania.com/give/A1047>

This is a great place for those of you receiving our News Letter out of state to get involved. You can visit the secure site, make your contribution and receive your ticket. Isn't this great? No One has an excuse for not doing their part!

Once again, for those of you unfamiliar with the Sweepstake, let me explain. FootballMania is an exciting opportunity for participants because each ticket holder has an equal chance of winning. There's no need to be a football guru... Each ticket contains 3 random teams in each week of the 17 week season. That's a different set of teams each week. No two tickets have the same 3 teams in any given week. Your $20 ticket covers you for the entire season!

Winning tickets are determined based on the points scored by the football teams assigned to it for that week. If two tickets have the same score, the total yards gained by the 3 teams is used as a tiebreaker. The best part is you have 6 chances to win every week, since the four highest scoring tickets and the two lowest scoring tickets each week win prize money!

Weekly Winners and Prize Money

Ticket with the Highest Combined Score	$500
Second Highest Score	$200
Third Highest Score	$100
Fourth Highest Score	$50
Lowest Total Score	$50
Second Lowest Total Score	$25
Total Prize Money Paid per Week	$925

Grand Prize Winners and Payouts

Ticket with the Highest 17 Week Total	$1,000
Ticket with the Lowest 17 Week Total	$275
Total Grand Prize Money Paid	$1,275

Guaranteed Winners Program (if applicable)

Highest weekly score from your organization	$20

You also have the chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Each ticket has a minimum of 1 in 48 chances to win a prize during the season. But wait there's more! Last year the council sold over 100 tickets making us eligible to be part of the "Guaranteed Winners Program", that ensures us of having 1 winner each week out of the tickets the council sold.

Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we've sold over 100 tickets, we're guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we'll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

NY Giant Football Ticket Raffle

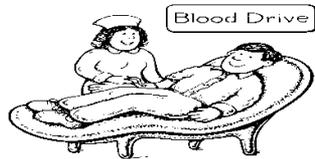

The Council ran a raffle and the prize was 4 tickets to see the NY Giants vs. Miami Dolphins on October 30th at 1:00 PM. Tickets are in Section 101, Row 2, Seats 13-16. Prize includes one parking pass. The happy winner was Brother Joe Hruby. Hope you enjoy the game Joe.

Invitation to Pray With Fellow Brothers and Their Families

Brothers - All are invited to pray Evening Prayer in the Daily Chapel at 7:00 p.m. each Sunday. This time of prayer and meditation is only for a half-hour. Evening Prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray always" (Luke 18:1; see also 1 Thessalonians 5:17). Through this prayer, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and prayers of intercession for the needs of the world.

Blood Drives

Council 6100 sponsored two Blood Drives: on Sunday, July 17th 39 pints of blood were collected and on Sunday, October 16th 36 pints of blood were collected. The Blood Bank and the Council thank all who donated and the Council also thanks Tim Goodhue, chairman for this event.

Veterans

American Legion Post #422 is moving from Roxbury Township to Budd Lake. If you were honorably discharged from any military branch come join other proud men and women as a member of the American Legion. If you currently belong to an American Legion post outside of Budd Lake won't you please consider transferring membership to Post #422. Like the Knights of Columbus, the American Legion supports many charitable causes as well as serving as a strong advocate for veterans. For more information contact Guy Tarsitano, Commander, Post #422 at 973-426-0006.

Different Life Stages, Changing Needs

Paying for college for your children may be one of your family's current needs. You may be concerned about a comfortable, worry-free retirement. You may wonder if needing costly long-term care will deplete your hard-earned assets. You want to have something to leave for your wife, children or grandchildren.

At some point you may have had all of these needs on your mind. Over time, these thoughts make way for others as your needs evolve, your finances change and you get older. What is important to you at age 20, may not be at 30, or 45, or 65. What is the best way to be prepared for these changes before they happen?

One of the easiest ways to be financially ready for changes that come with different life stages is to meet annually with your professional Knights of Columbus agent, and address the needs that his analysis uncovers. This can help you be ready to face the financial challenges and issues on the road ahead.

During that annual visit, I'll take the time to review your needs, goals and budget. I'll update all beneficiaries on your policies and be sure your coverage meets your needs. I'll recommend a program of life insurance, long-term care insurance and guaranteed income annuities that will help you rest easy at night.

Whatever your needs, whatever your concerns, whatever your stage in life, I can help.

Please give me a call if you'd like more information. Call me today at (973) 579-7224 for an appointment. Call me – let's talk. I want to hear from you.

Council Magazine Fundraiser

Brothers,

By now most of you have heard about the new Magazine Fundraiser that Council 6100 is running in conjunction with St. Jude Parish. In these difficult economic times we have looked at many ways to minimize the impact on our community as we seek ways to raise funds. We think the Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it is easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or dicicco-highfield@att.net

For the special intentions of Father Joseph Orlandi,

And lastly pray to the Blessed Mother for World peace.

A.S.A.P. - Always Say a Prayer

Editor's Notes:

Get More Involved – As we enter the month of November the calendar shows that we are a Council with a hearty appetite for charitable and fraternal work. We have a wide range of activities, either in progress, or planned for the near future. Every activity needs chairmen and committee members. If you are not already as active as you should be, you can see where the opportunities are. Attend the next Business Meeting on Monday, November 14th at 8:00 pm to become more involved in the Council's good works.

Knights of Columbus on the Internet

For those Knights who like to visit cyberspace here are the following web sites on the Internet to get information about the Knights of Columbus. They are:

Supreme Council Website - (<http://www.kofc-supreme-council.org>) Site consists of various webpages telling about who we are, how to join, up-to-date news of the Order, information, history, photographs and more.

Knightsite - (<http://www.knightsite.com/kofc.htm>) Site consists of a directory of over 120 individual web pages: a web page for each U.S. State and Canadian Province, The Vatican website and the Supreme Council Website; how to pray the rosary and various other pages of interest to Brother Knights.

New Jersey State Council – (<http://www.njkofc.org>)

Council 6100 - has it's own web site. Among the things on the web page are the latest Council Newsletter, the Business Meeting highlights and the Council Calendar for the next two months. It can be found at kofc6100.org or as a link under the St. Jude Parish website: www.stjudeparish.org.

Other Interesting Websites:

The Paterson Diocese – <http://www.patersondiocese.org>

The Vatican – <http://vatican.va>

Eternal World Television Network – <http://www.ewtn.com>

NOTICE – As another means of relaying news about the Knights of Columbus, Council 6100, etc., it is requested that all knights having e-mail addresses provide them to me at my e-mail address listed here: (buckalew@ptd.net). Sometimes the telephone tree does not always work because members are not at home and do not have an answering machine. This way if any news has to get out fast, an urgent e-mail message can be sent to all those who have provided us with their e-mail addresses.

An Interesting Fact

The World's Largest Army

The world's largest army... America's hunters! I had never thought about this... A blogger added up the deer licence sales in just a handful of states and arrived at a striking conclusion:

There were over 600,000 hunters this season in the state of Wisconsin. Allow me to restate that number. Over the last several months, Wisconsin became the eighth largest army in the world. More men under arms than in Iran. More than in France and Germany combined. These men deployed to the woods of a single American state to hunt with firearms, and no one was killed. That number pales in comparison to the 750,000 who hunted in the woods of Pennsylvania and Michigan's 700,000 hunters, all of whom have now returned home. Toss in a quarter million hunters in West Virginia and it literally establishes the fact that the hunters of those four states alone would comprise the largest army in the world.

The point? America will forever be safe from foreign invasion with that kind of home - grown firepower.

Hunting - it's not just a way to fill the freezer. It's a matter of national security.

That's why all enemies, foreign and domestic, want to see us disarmed.

Food for thought when next we consider gun control.

Other Council Activities

Bingo – Phil Graziano is the head of the Bingo Committee. The Council is still in dire need of a few 'Good Knights' to adequately staff our bingo teams. I hope the Council will help fill the voids now present on all bingo teams. If a few 'Good Knights' with nothing to do one Friday evening per month would volunteer their time between 6:30 PM and 11:30 PM (only five+ hours per month), we would be able to fully staff our four bingo teams. If you can not volunteer five hours per month, perhaps you could volunteer a few hours of your time per month. If you can volunteer in any way please call Phil at (908)979-3375 or e-mail: philgraz53@comcast.net.

Coffee N' – Is held on the first Sunday of every month after the 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 Mass. Council 6100 will host the Coffee N', in the months of February, May, and November. Brother Tom Rohe has agreed to run the next few Coffee N's but we will need to have a few brothers to step up and help Tom to run these Coffee N's. The job entails shopping for the needs of the day, organizing the work schedule for the day and just getting the job done. If you can help in any way please let Tom know, (973-426-9394).

Campbell Soup Label Collection – Brother Victor Farina is collecting Campbell Soup labels as a donation to acquire books from the Library of Congress for the Blind and Disabled. Bring your labels to the next Business Meeting for Victor.

Father Dan's Musical Concert Website – BIG NEWS – WE HAVE A WEBSITE – LOOK FOR FUTURE E-MAIL ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM SPLATTER CONCERTS – www.splatterconcerts.com. We're also on Facebook and My Space under Splatter Concerts – our new name! It's been a VERY rough year for us financially, and we don't know how much longer we can continue without getting more people through the doors for the shows. It's been a GREAT year musically, with Ian McLagan, Donna Jean Godchaux, Ana Popovic, Smokin' Joe, Bill Kirchen, and The New Riders of the Purple Sage, but all of the above shows except Smokin' Joe have run in the red, so please come out if you want the music to continue! Shows at the Ukrainian American Cultural Center, 60 North Jefferson Road Whippany, NJ 07981. Food Available – Have dinner with us! Reverend Daniel D. Staniskis, phone (973-585-7175).
