Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

While 2011 is in the rearview mirror, 2012 in full view. 2011 was a pretty tough year... the year started with large number of snow "events", spring brought about rain.... then there was Irene and record rainfall.... and let's not forget be tricked and not treated with the October blizzard. Throw in our "robust and thriving" economic situation and it's pretty obvious that we need 2012 to be better. 2011 wasn't all that bad; Father Joe was officially named our pastor at St. Jude.

I am taking some liberty here by declaring 2012 Council 6100's year of respecting life. The Knights of Columbus have and will always be champions for the unborn, but respecting life goes beyond just abortion. We need to continue our ministries of the sick, the distressed and those in need with both monetary and spiritual support.

Monday, January 23, 2012 is the Right to Life March in Washington. As we have in the past, we will be having the Rose Sale with the proceeds to be used to assist with the bus that is being sponsored by St. Michael's in Netcong. I realize that the march is on a work day and it is tough to get there, however I encourage you to try and go. If you would like to attend, please contact Gerry Kaufhold. Finally for those who are looking for a New Year's resolution... how about coming out and helping with Bingo. Remember Bingo is what provides us with the means to fund our charitable endeavors.

On behalf of Grace, Daniel and Carolyn I want to wish you and your families a very prosperous New Year and Peace.

PS---- we could always use a few more Brothers at Bingo....

Vivat Jesus!

Chaplain's Corner

My Dear Brother Knights,

‘Look Both Ways!’

When children are in their formative years, most families have a litany of rules that are intended to help the young ones grow to well-balanced, happy, wholesome and holy maturity: “Wash your hands ... Brush your teeth ... Eat your vegetables ... Say ‘Please’ and ‘Thank you’ ... Don’t talk to strangers ... Tell the truth ... Don’t gossip ... Stand up straight ... Play fair ... Cover your mouth when you sneeze ... Say your prayers ... Be grateful ...” Along with these and many others that you might remember, most of us also heard “Look both ways” before we ventured out into the streets that would lead us from the warmth and safety of home.

At the outset of the year now beginning, the sacred texts, their authors and countless generations of believers who have gone before us offer similarly wise counsel: “Look both ways.” Look back with gratitude at the year now being committed to history, and look ahead with hope and trust to the future we have yet to experience.

Unfortunately, some of us come to this new year with the baggage of the past, with regret and guilt and remorse, and perhaps these emotions may be warranted. Nevertheless, the gift of the New Year invites us to surrender the past to the past so we can appreciate the grace of a fresh beginning.

Hannah Whitall Smith shares a thought that helped her to unload before walking into the New Year: “Never indulge, at the close of any action, in any self-reflective acts of any kind, whether of self-congratulation or self-despair. Forget the things that are behind, the moment they are past, leaving them with God”.

As we look both ways, we do not linger on the looking back. Rather, we press forward, as did former U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld, who said, “For all that has been, thanks! For all that will be, Yes!”

This year, our “Yes!” will immediately be met by a blessing as the author of Numbers consecrates each of us and the year ahead, claiming us for God. On the strength of that blessing, we are able to go forth into 2012 fully confident that we are not alone or unequipped for whatever lies ahead.

We can also become a source of blessing to others for whom a kind word, a shared meal, an attentive ear can truly mean the difference between feeling alone and knowing the warmth of community.

As the month unfolds, we will be reminded again and again that we possess a wondrous treasure in the living, breathing word of God, which calls us out of the darkness to live in the light of a new day, a new year.

As we struggle to maintain our focus and sustain our hope in a future yet to be revealed, we will become reacquainted with others who have been similarly challenged. We will meet the young Samuel, who, with the help of Eli, was able to discern that God was calling him. His “Here I am!” encourages our own eager willingness to walk into the future months with hope.

That same eagerness on the part of Jesus’ disciples will earn for them the invitation from Jesus, “Come, see, stay,” and these words continue to invite Jesus’ followers to the communion with him that empowers their service. In the ornery character of Jonah and in his reluctance to relinquish his bigotry, we will learn that God can communicate the good news even through the most unappealing and unsympathetic messengers.

We, for our part, are to learn that looking both ways requires our willingness to look beyond cranky impatience that may be off-putting in order to appreciate the message being shared. Jonah’s call to repentance will be echoed in that of the Marcan Jesus, who paired his invitation to repent with a call to believe. Looking back may prompt repentance, but looking ahead requires faith professed with one’s lips as well as one’s life.

January’s fifth Sunday will reveal God’s promise to send a prophet like Moses to speak in God’s name among us. This promise was, of course, fulfilled in Jesus. But it is also fulfilled in those who dare to speak for God when it would be safer or more politically correct to remain silent. As we look both ways and plow ahead into 2012, we pray for the grace and the guts to do likewise.

Yours in Christ, your chaplain

Rev. Joseph Orlandi

Rose for Life

The weekends of January 8th and the 15th the Squires will have lapel roses to distribute after all of the masses. Wearing the “Rose” is a visible sign of your support for “Respect Life” issues. Your donations will help to defray the costs of the “March for Life” bus trip to Washington DC to commemorate the anniversary of the Supreme Court Roe versus Wade decision. Your generosity is appreciated.

Invitation to Pray With Fellow Brothers and Their Families

Brothers - All are invited to pray Evening Prayer in the Daily Chapel at 7:00 p.m. each Sunday. This time of prayer and meditation is only for a half-hour. Evening Prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, the Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray always" (Luke 18:1; see also 1 Thessalonians 5:17). Through this prayer, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and prayers of intercession for the needs of the world.

The Council Is Ready for Football!!

Once again, Council 6100 has come through to help make this year's "FootballMania" fundraiser a huge success. Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we've sold over 100 tickets, we're guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we'll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

Please contact me at: jmitru@verizon.net, or call me at: 973-598-0282 and I'll answer any questions you have.

Please visit our very own CharityMania Website:

<https://www.charitymania.com/give/A1047>

Once again, for those of you unfamiliar with the Sweepstake, let me explain. FootballMania is an exciting opportunity for participants because each ticket holder has an equal chance of winning. There's no need to be a football guru... Each ticket contains 3 random teams in each week of the 17 week season. That's a different set of teams each week. No two tickets have the same 3 teams in any given week. Your $20 ticket covers you for the entire season!

Winning tickets are determined based on the points scored by the football teams assigned to it for that week. If two tickets have the same score, the total yards gained by the 3 teams is used as a tiebreaker. The best part is you have 6 chances to win every week, since the four highest scoring tickets and the two lowest scoring tickets each week win prize money!

Weekly Winners and Prize Money

Ticket with the Highest Combined Score	$500
Second Highest Score	$200
Third Highest Score	$100
Fourth Highest Score	$50
Lowest Total Score	$50
Second Lowest Total Score	$25
Total Prize Money Paid per Week	$925

Grand Prize Winners and Payouts

Ticket with the Highest 17 Week Total	$1,000
Ticket with the Lowest 17 Week Total	$275
Total Grand Prize Money Paid	$1,275

Guaranteed Winners Program (if applicable)

Highest weekly score from your organization	$20

You also have the chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Each ticket has a minimum of 1 in 48 chances to win a prize during the season. But wait there's more! Last year the council sold over 100 tickets making us eligible to be part of the "Guaranteed Winners Program", that ensures us of having 1 winner each week out of the tickets the council sold.

Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we've sold over 100 tickets, we're guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we'll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

Insurance Message

Your Business Belongs Here

Do you know that the Knights of Columbus can offer you IRAs and Keogh Plans (US), RRSPs (Canada)? Do you know enough about them to decide whether or not they fit into your financial picture?

I would like you to answer three questions: 1) Are you, like most people, interested in saving money? 2) Do you find it difficult to save under common saving methods? 3) Take the number of years you've been working times your average salary. What percentage of that income have you saved so far? How much will you save in the future?

If your answers bother you, I would like the chance to sit and talk with you (and your wife, of course) about our alternatives – annuities and tax-sheltered savings at highly competitive interest rates. You need not look anywhere else but your own Order for your financial needs. Other institutions bombard you with ads for business at this time of year. We just keep doing what we have been doing since father McGivney, founder of the Order – taking care of our members and their families.

This year, give a gift of security and protection. Please give me a call if you'd like more information. Call me today at (973) 579-7224 for an appointment. Call me – let's talk. I want to hear from you.

Happy New Year to all of you!

Council Magazine Fundraiser

Brothers,

By now most of you have heard about the new Magazine Fundraiser that Council 6100 is running in conjunction with St. Jude Parish. In these difficult economic times we have looked at many ways to minimize the impact on our community as we seek ways to raise funds. We think the Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it is easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or dicicco-highfield@att.net

On The Lighter Side

Quite a Teacher!

This man is truly a genius!

An economics professor at a local college made a statement that he had never failed a single student before, but had recently failed an entire class. That class had insisted that Obama's socialism worked and that no one would be poor and no one would be rich, a great equalizer.

The professor then said, "OK, we will have an experiment in this class on Obama's plan". All grades would be averaged and everyone would receive the same grade so no one would fail and no one would receive an A.

After the first test, the grades were averaged and everyone got a B. The students who studied hard were upset and the students who studied little were happy. As the second test rolled around, the students who studied little had studied even less and the ones who studied hard decided they wanted a free ride too so they studied little.

The second test average was a D! No one was happy. When the 3rd test rolled around, the average was an F.

As the tests proceeded, the scores never increased as bickering, blame and name-calling all resulted in hard feelings and no one would study for the benefit of anyone else.

All failed, to their great surprise, and the professor told them that socialism would also ultimately fail because when the reward is great, the effort to succeed is great, but when government takes all the reward away, no one will try or want to succeed.

Could not be any simpler than that. (Please pass this on) Remember, there is a test coming up. The 2012 elections.
