Attention Brothers – Council Going “Green”

The Council would like all brothers who have a computer and internet access to get their newsletters electronically. Brothers who do not have a computer will still be able to get a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to them.

The Council's website (www.kofc6100.org) has a link that contains the monthly newsletter from July 2009 to the latest newsletter in pdf format. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 206 newsletters were mailed, 6 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far one hundred four brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website or by mail. That leaves approximately two hundred members who haven't informed me how they want to receive the newsletter. Please send your preference to: Gregg Buckalew, P.O. Box 157, Tranquility, NJ 07879; e-mail address: buckalew@ptd.net; or telephone (908-852-9184).

Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

The Devil

In contrast to many imaginative writings, Catholic Church doctrine actually has very little to say about the devil. The Catechism of the Catholic Church simply quotes the teaching of the Fourth Lateran Council in 1215:

“The Church teaches that Satan was at first a good angel, made by God: “The devil and the other demons were indeed created naturally good by God, but they became evil by their own doing.”

This brief statement affirms two things: (1) Satan was created by God. He is not an evil force equal to God, but one of God's creatures. (2) Satan was created good. By his own free choice he turned to evil. He was not created evil by God.

Devils are not given names in Scripture. The word “Satan” is a Hebrew noun that means an adversary, tester, and accuser. It was translated into Greek as “diabolos” which essentially means the same thing. “Diabolos” was translated into English as “devil”.

Then Jesus as led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry. (Mt 4:1-2)

In their 40-year journey to the Promised Land, the people of Israel were tested in the desert. This “testing” had to do with their willingness to live up to the Sinai covenant: “I will be your God, and you will be my people.”

Jesus faces a similar testing. The voice from heaven at the baptism of Jesus had just declared, “This is my beloved Son.” Jesus is now tested whether he is willing to live up to his call. Is he willing to confront evil, not with the sword, but with goodness and kindness? The temptation to follow a different path will dog him until the day he dies.

Satan, often referred to simply as the “devil,” is the great “tempter” who tried to keep me from living as the person God has called me to be.

At first glance the temptations I face seem to invite me to do (or not do) this or that. But they aren’t that simple. They go deeper – to my identity, to the person I know I am.

Often disguised as minor temptations, they are major league deceptions that steer me away from something not small at all: Being the person I am made by God to be.

Vivat Jesus,

John Mania, Grand Knight

P.S. Father McGivney’s dream was that no family of a Knight should have to suffer financial hardship in the event of his death. The Knights of Columbus insurance program has and continues to be a pillar of strength. It is important that each member take the time to meet with our Field Agent so that he can explain the options that are available to you so that your family is protected. When our agent, Brother Joe Barrett calls, please set aside an hour to meet with him. Your family will be grateful that you did.

Chaplain’s Corner

My Dear Brother Knights,

God in Our Guts

Until I read Susan Gubar’s Memoir of a Debulked Woman, I’d never heard the word “debulked.” I did not know it was the standard surgical treatment for late-stage ovarian cancer. I did not know that it entailed the evisceration of the patient: in Gubar’s case, the removal of her ovaries, uterus, fallopian tubes, appendix and a portion of her colon — with the cut ends then reattached, a reattachment that failed in miserable fashion. Surgeons even removed Gubar’s omentum, described in medical literature as “the apron-like flap of tissue that lies under the belly muscles and blankets the intestines.”

Pause for a moment with the word “blankets” and consider how Gubar was stripped, emptied, uncovered and shorn. But worse is to come: Gubar has yet another surgery, because the reattachments done during the colectomy leak. The doctors create an ileostomy, a stoma, or opening, from her ileum through her abdomen. Bypassing the lower intestine while it heals, fecal matter drips directly from the small intestine into a bag Gubar must wear at all times and clean and change frequently.

And here Gubar writes not about physical pain, but about the shame of waste and excretion and odors and sounds and soiling. She writes of waking from her drugged and uncomfortable sleep, finding her fingers clenched around the pleated and sealed opening of the ostomy bag. Her fear of fouling herself, her bed, and her husband is so deep that it defies pain and sleep, even the forced unconsciousness of narcotics.

When I opened the book, I had no idea that was part of Gubar’s surgical ordeal. “It is not physical pain I feared, but shame. I could not imagine ever again going to parties or traveling or, indeed, eating, as something I had been taught since babyhood to hide and conceal lay outside my body and outside my control in, to me, terrifying ways.”

There would be no reprieves for Gubar. She had drainage tubes inserted in her buttocks and abdomen. She was poisoned by chemotherapy. She suffered nerve and brain damage caused by the treatments meant to cure her. She endured a smothering fatigue. The cancer returned. As Gubar reminds her readers, “A patient diagnosed with ovarian cancer will die of ovarian cancer,” but not without hundreds of other, smaller deaths first.

Reading her book, I was reminded — again, always and ever, again — of the deep grace and goodness, the mercy, of the Incarnation. God will lift the veil of shame that covers all the fluids and discharges, the odors and urges of men and women, when he emerges, slick with blood and feces, from his mother’s womb. Christ eats and drinks and urinates and defecates. He weeps. He sweats and bruises and groans and stumbles. He bleeds. He dies. And what does he leave us, we who would not be orphans? Christ leaves us with his body and his blood, real body and real blood we say, as if to convince ourselves that such a thing can possibly be true. We ingest the body and blood of Christ. We chew Christ and swallow Christ and digest Christ. And, yes, though I hesitate to write this, so deep is the taboo, carved in my flesh, against thinking or speaking of it, we excrete Christ.

The divine is daily mixed with the mortal, and not the part of our mortal nature we show or esteem, but precisely the part we hide and fear. God in our guts, and our guts redeemed, made holy. Every gastroenterologist has a stack of brochures in the waiting room. The pamphlets feature pictures of hard bodies climbing sheer rock faces and dancing the tango. The text tells us that these splendid men and women are wearing the new sport friendly ostomy appliances. Be sure to ask your doctor about getting one for your very own.

Gubar says this is all a lie. The bags swell with gas, and because there are no rectal muscles, waste empties into them at will. There is no “holding it,” neither waste nor pride: there is no holding it, neither waste nor pride. It frightens me. It fills me with joy.

Sincerely, Yours in Christ, your chaplain

Father Joe

2012 Football Charity Mania

Once again, Council 6100 has come through to help make this year’s “FootballMania” fundraiser a huge success. Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we’ve sold over 100 tickets, we’re guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we’ll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

Please contact me at: jmitru@verizon.net, or call me at: 973-598-0282 and I’ll answer any questions you have.

Please visit our very own CharityMania Website:
<https://www.charitymania.com/give/A1047>

Once again, for those of you unfamiliar with the Sweepstake, let me explain. FootballMania is an exciting opportunity for participants because each ticket holder has an equal chance of winning. There’s no need to be a football guru... Each ticket contains 3 random teams in each week of the 17 week season. That’s a different set of teams each week. No two tickets have the same 3 teams in any given week. Your $20 ticket covers you for the entire season!

Winning tickets are determined based on the points scored by the football teams assigned to it for that week. If two tickets have the same score, the total yards gained by the 3 teams is used as a tiebreaker. The best part is you have 6 chances to win every week, since the four highest scoring tickets and the two lowest scoring tickets each week win prize money!

Weekly Winners and Prize Money

Ticket with the Highest Combined Score	$500
Second Highest Score	$200
Third Highest Score	$100
Fourth Highest Score	$50
Lowest Total Score	$50
Second Lowest Total Score	$25
Total Prize Money Paid per Week	$925

Grand Prize Winners and Payouts

Ticket with the Highest 17 Week Total	$1,000
Ticket with the Lowest 17 Week Total	$275

Total Grand Prize Money Paid	$1,275
------------------------------	---------

Guaranteed Winners Program (if applicable)

Highest weekly score from your organization	$20

You also have the chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Each ticket has a minimum of 1 in 48 chances to win a prize during the season. But wait there's more! Last year the council sold over 100 tickets making us eligible to be part of the "Guaranteed Winners Program", that ensures us of having 1 winner each week out of the tickets the council sold.

Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we've sold over 100 tickets, we're guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we'll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

Invitation to Pray With Fellow Brothers and Their Families

Brothers - All are invited to pray Evening Prayer in the Daily Chapel at 7:00 p.m. each Sunday. This time of prayer and meditation is only for a half-hour. Evening Prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, The Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray always" (Luke 18:1; see also 1 Thessalonians 5:17). Through this prayer, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and prayers of intercession for the needs of the world.

Council 6100 Goods & Services Marketplace Concept

- An idea has been presented to establish a Goods & Service marketplace within Council 6100.
- All Brothers are invited to participate. Here is how it will work:
  - Gather the key minimum information about your business or services that you may have to offer. This includes your name, phone number, email, brief description of services able to provide, the name of your business or if you are a sole proprietor, your license number (if applicable), your company website (if applicable), and a brief biography no more than 1 paragraph that is relevant to the services that you are offering.
  - Send this information to Andrew Miller by: e-mail to andrew\_k\_miller@yahoo.com, snail mail to 16 Wildwood Avenue, Budd Lake, NJ 07828 or call at 917-327-7681.
  - This information will be entered into a database and will generate a list that will be shared with all Brothers at the next General Meeting and will be included on the Council's website and newsletter. In the future, we may consider publishing a directory. Note that the Council, St. Jude's and Andrew Miller will have no liability as to the quality of services provided.
  - Buyers should contact sellers directly. Please perform whatever due diligence you think is appropriate.
  - If you have a good or bad experience with a seller, please feel free to email or mail Andrew Miller with your input.
  - Currently, there will be no cost for this service.
- Let's work together and make this a success!

Council Magazine Fundraiser

Brothers,

By now most of you have heard about the new Magazine Fundraiser that Council 6100 is running in conjunction with St. Jude Parish. In these difficult economic times we have looked at many ways to minimize the impact on our community as we seek ways to raise funds. We think the Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it is easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or dicicco-highfield@att.net

Editor's Notes:

Get More Involved – As we enter October 2012 the calendar shows that we are a Council with a hearty appetite for charitable and fraternal work. We have a wide range of activities, either in progress, or planned for the near future. Every activity needs chairmen and committee members. If you are not already as active as you should be, you can see where the opportunities are. Attend the next Business Meeting on Monday, October 8th at 8:00 pm to become more involved in the Council's good works.

Moving, Have a New E-Mail Address or Phone Number – If you are moving or have moved, changed your e-mail address or phone number, please notify me. It is important that we keep our records up to date.

Business Meeting Highlights

The highlights of the Business Meeting of September 10th were as follows: (25 members present)

The following motions were presented to and voted upon by the Council during this Business Meeting:

1. Gerry Kaufhold made a motion for the Council to donate $500.00 to the Several Sources Shelters for operational support of their Mobile Sonogram Unit. The motion was seconded by Pete Longo and it passed by a unanimous voice vote.
2. A motion to provide up to $2,050.00 towards sending Council 6100 Knights in good standing and Father Joe to the New Jersey Council San Alfonso State Retreat House in Long Branch, October 19th – 21st was made by Phil Graziano. This will pay for related meals and lodging, e.g. (10 Knights x $175.00 maximum each & Father Joe at $300.00 for the whole week.) Tom DeLalla seconded the motion and it passed by a voice vote with one opposed. This constituted the first reading of this motion because of the amount. This motion will be acted upon at the next business meeting.
3. Phil Graziano made a motion for the Council to donate $500.00 to a hospital in the Archdiocese of the Ivory Coast. The motion was seconded by Joe Devlin and after a lengthy discussion it passed by a unanimous voice vote.

On The Lighter Side

Eight Things to Ponder

Number 8 - Life is sexually transmitted.

Number 7 - Good health is merely the slowest possible rate at which one can die.

Number 6 - Men have two emotions: Hungry and Horny. If you see a gleam in his eyes, make him a sandwich.

Number 5 - Give a person a fish and you feed them for a day. Teach a person to use the Internet and they won't bother you for weeks, months, maybe years.

Number 4 - Health nuts are going to feel stupid someday, lying in the hospitals, dying of nothing.

Number 3 - All of us could take a lesson from the weather. It pays no attention to criticism.

Number 2 - In the 60's, people took acid to make the world weird. Now the world is weird and people take Prozac to make it normal.

And The Number 1 Thought - Life is like a jar of Jalapeno peppers - what you do today, might burn your butt tomorrow.

- - - and as someone recently said to me: "Don't worry about old age--it doesn't last that long."

Other Council Activities

Bingo – Phil Graziano is the head of the Bingo Committee. The Council is still in dire need of a few 'Good Knights' to adequately staff our bingo teams. I hope the Council will help fill the voids now present on all bingo teams. If a few 'Good Knights' with nothing to do one Friday evening per month would volunteer their time between 6:30 PM and 11:30 PM (only five+ hours per month), we would be able to fully staff our four bingo teams. If you can not volunteer five hours per month, perhaps you could volunteer a few hours of your time per month. If you can volunteer in any way please call Phil at (908)979-3375 or e-mail: philgraz53@comcast.net.

Coffee N' – Is held on the first Sunday of every month after the 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 Mass. Council 6100 will host the Coffee N', in the months of February, May, and November. Brother Tom Rohe has agreed to run the next few Coffee N's but we will need to have a few brothers to step up and help Tom to run these Coffee N's. The job entails shopping for the needs of the day, organizing the work schedule for the day and just getting the job done. If you can help in any way please let Tom know,
