Attention Brothers – Council Going “Green”

The Council would like all brothers who have a computer and internet access to get their newsletters electronically. Brothers who do not have a computer will still be able to get a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to them.

*The Council's website (www.kofc6100.org) has a link that contains the monthly newsletter from July 2009 to the latest newsletter in pdf format. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 206 newsletters were mailed, 6 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far one hundred four brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website or by mail. Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

Guardian Angel Prayers

Angel of God, my guardian dear,
To whom God's love commits me here,
Be ever this day at my side,
To light, to guard, to rule and guide.

Lord, give thine angels every day
Command to guard us on our way,
And bid them every evening keep
Their watch around us while we sleep.

– John Mason Neale

Hail Guardian Angels of the House!
Come to our aid,
Share with us our work and play.
Be with us that we may hear your wings
And feel your breath upon our cheek.

- Geoffrey Hodson

O passing Angel,
Speed me with a song
A melody of heaven

To reach my heart
And rouse me to the race
And make me strong.
– Christina Rossetti

Vivat Jesus,

John Mania, Grand Knight

P.S. Father McGivney's dream was that no family of a Knight should have to suffer financial hardship in the event of his death. The Knights of Columbus insurance program has and continues to be a pillar of strength. It is important that each member take the time to meet with our Field Agent so that he can explain the options that are available to you so that your family is protected. When our agent, Brother Joe Barrett calls, please set aside an hour to meet with him. Your family will be grateful that you did.

Chaplain's Corner

My Dear Brother Knights,

It's Probably Nothing By Melissa Musick Nussbaum

On the Thursday before Memorial Day my husband and I boarded the California Zephyr bound for Chicago. We can't board at Union Station in Denver as that building is being renovated. What has been turned into the train station is a low concrete structure just across the street from Union. If Denver International Airport announces itself in great tent tops that seem to float across the western sky, the temporary train station hunkers down, crouching against Coors Field. It's crowded when we arrive. People sit surrounded by their luggage and their food: water bottles, soda, fruit, chips and sandwiches. Nothing appears to satisfy the airline carry-on three-ounce limit above which, one assumes, everybody dies.

I listen for the ominous warnings emanating from hidden speakers: Not only is the moving walkway ending, but unaccompanied luggage will be seized and, one suspects, detonated by the bomb unit. I listen for the subliminal message just below the airport broadcast, the message that we should all "Be afraid; be very afraid." Instead, I see a single sign. It is my favorite sign from our endless war on terror. It says: If You See Something, Say Something. It's Probably Nothing. Amtrak had me at "It's probably nothing."

No one searches our luggage. No one swipes my packed underwear with an explosive-detecting eye makeup remover pad (or, at least, what looks to me like an explosive-detecting eye makeup remover pad). We shuffle to our sleeping car and settle in our "roomette." Ventures to the bathroom at the end of the car, and to the dining room two cars over reveal compartment after compartment of people sitting... and reading. Having conversation. Looking out the window at the eastern plains of Colorado. Playing cards.

Because there is no Internet reception and only sporadic cell phone reception, passengers are forced to fall back on non-battery-operated pursuits. There are no televisions broadcasting minute-by-minute misery, and there is no piped-in music to mask the sounds of the wheels on the rails as we make our way into Nebraska and night. Meals on the train are at tables set for four. For my husband and me, that means we shared three meals with strangers before we pulled into Chicago on Friday afternoon. We ate with an Amtrak employee who discussed government subsidies for various means of transportation with my husband and possible future western rail lines with me and advised us both on menu choices.

We ate with an English couple traveling by train from San Francisco to New York City. She's an administrator with the British National Health Service and he's an engineer. They've opted for private health insurance and do not sing the praises of the single payer system. We ate with a woman whose speech is stroke-slowed, but whose thoughts are bright and quick. She is an Iowa native, returned home for good after many years away, a follower of Wendell Berry and Michael Pollan and an advocate for foods that are recognizable as comestibles rather than chemicals, and places where people root and remain.

The conversations were not always easy and there were as many points of disagreement among us as agreement, but our conversations were always civil, as well as lively. We learned some things and continued the conversations even after our tablemates parted and it was just the two of us talking about whether a city building an airport counted as a government subsidy of the airline industry. I'm not sure why bringing a group of people into the closed space of an airport or an airplane is atomizing, while bringing a group of people into the closed space of a train station or train observation car is not. I can only reflect on my experiences in both settings.

Perhaps it is the connection to the outside world. At one point during a meal we all sat and watched in wonder as we crossed the Mississippi River. Sailors on a barge waved at us as we passed. I have made that crossing many times, by car and by train, and I never tire of the sight. On a plane, only the captain's voice alerts me to what I could not otherwise identify far below. Perhaps it is the speed at which a train travels. I can watch the towns passing, watch as the farmland of Illinois bleeds into the exurbs and then the suburbs and finally the city of Chicago. It is not the same sense of dislocation one feels after being sealed in a tube and whisked above the clouds from one place to another with nothing but sky in between.

Perhaps it is the experience of sleeping in close proximity, all of us vulnerable, barefooted and bed-headed as we pass on the way to the toilet. Perhaps it is sharing meals with strangers. Perhaps it's the announced assumption of the official sign in the station. Yes, it says, we are strangers, and so initially suspicious of one another. But we're going to share a journey together and will most likely discover along the way that we mean no harm and may even intend good. So, if you see something, say something. But it's probably nothing.

Sincerely, Yours in Christ, your chaplain

Rev. Joseph Orlandi

2012 Football Charity Mania

Once again, Council 6100 has come through to help make this year's "FootballMania" fundraiser a huge success. Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we've sold over 100 tickets, we're guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we'll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

Please contact me at: jmitru@verizon.net, or call me at: 973-598-0282 and I'll answer any questions you have.

Please visit our very own CharityMania Website:

<https://www.charitymania.com/give/A1047>

Once again, for those of you unfamiliar with the Sweepstake, let me explain. FootballMania is an exciting opportunity for participants because each ticket holder has an equal chance of winning. There's no need to be a football guru...Each ticket contains 3 random teams in each week of the 17 week season. That's a different set of teams each week. No two tickets have the same 3 teams in any given week. Your $20 ticket covers you for the entire season!

Winning tickets are determined based on the points scored by the football teams assigned to it for that week. If two tickets have the same score, the total yards gained by the 3 teams is used as a tiebreaker. The best part is you have 6 chances to win every week, since the four highest scoring tickets and the two lowest scoring tickets each week win prize money!

Weekly Winners and Prize Money

Ticket with the Highest Combined Score	$500
Second Highest Score	$200
Third Highest Score	$100
Fourth Highest Score	$50
Lowest Total Score	$50
Second Lowest Total Score	$25
Total Prize Money Paid per Week	$925

Grand Prize Winners and Payouts

Ticket with the Highest 17 Week Total	$1,000
Ticket with the Lowest 17 Week Total	$275
Total Grand Prize Money Paid	$1,275

Guaranteed Winners Program (if applicable)

Highest weekly score from your organization	$20

You also have the chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Each ticket has a minimum of 1 in 48 chances to win a prize during the season. But wait there's more! Last year the council sold over 100 tickets making us eligible to be part of the "Guaranteed Winners Program", that ensures us of having 1 winner each week out of the tickets the council sold.

Just as a reminder, each ticket has 6 chances to win every week, as well as a chance to win two grand prizes at the end of the season. Since we've sold over 100 tickets, we're guaranteed to have 1 winner each of the 17 weeks of the season and we'll list them here in the monthly newsletter, so be sure to check for your name each month!

Invitation to Pray With Fellow Brothers and Their Families

Brothers - All are invited to pray Evening Prayer in the Daily Chapel at 7:00 p.m. each Sunday. This time of prayer and meditation is only for a half-hour. Evening Prayer is part of the Liturgy of the Hours, also known as the Divine Office. In the Liturgy of the Hours, The Church fulfills Jesus' command to "pray always" (Luke 18:1; see also 1 Thessalonians 5:17). Through this prayer, the people of God sanctify the day by continual praise of God and prayers of intercession for the needs of the world.

Council 6100 Goods & Services Marketplace Concept

- An idea has been presented to establish a Goods & Service marketplace within Council 6100.
- All Brothers are invited to participate. Here is how it will work:
  - Gather the key minimum information about your business or services that you may have to offer. This includes your name, phone number, email, brief description of services able to provide, the name of your business or if you are a sole proprietor, your license number (if applicable), your company website (if applicable), and a brief biography no more than 1 paragraph that is relevant to the services that you are offering.
  - Send this information to Andrew Miller by: e-mail to andrew\_k\_miller@yahoo.com, snail mail to 16 Wildwood Avenue, Budd Lake, NJ 07828 or call at 917-327-7681.
  - This information will be entered into a database and will generate a list that will be shared with all Brothers at the next General Meeting and will be included on the Council's website and newsletter. In the future, we may consider publishing a directory. Note that the Council, St. Jude's and Andrew Miller will have no liability as to the quality of services provided.
  - Buyers should contact sellers directly. Please perform whatever due diligence you think is appropriate.
  - If you have a good or bad experience with a seller, please feel free to email or mail Andrew Miller with your input.
  - Currently, there will be no cost for this service.
- Let's work together and make this a success!

Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it is easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or dicicco-highfield@att.net involved in the Council's good works.

On The Lighter Side

From a Canadian journalist... Only in America

- 1) Only in America, could politicians talk about the greed of the rich at a $35,000.00 a plate campaign fund-raising event.
- 2) Only in America, could people claim that the government still discriminates against black Americans when they have a black President, a black Attorney General, and roughly 18% of the federal workforce is black while only 12% of the population is black.

3) Only in America, could they have had the two people most responsible for our tax code, Timothy Geithner, the head of the Treasury Department and Charles Rangel who once ran the Ways and Means Committee, BOTH turn out to be tax cheats who are in favor of higher taxes.

4) Only in America, can they have terrorists kill people in the name of Allah and have the media primarily react by fretting that Muslims might be harmed by the backlash.

5) Only in America, would they make people who want to legally become American citizens wait for years in their home countries and pay tens of thousands of dollars for the privilege while we discuss letting anyone who sneaks into the country illegally just 'magically' become American citizens.

6) Only in America, could the people who believe in balancing the budget and sticking by the country's Constitution be thought of as "extremists."

7) Only in America, could you need to present a driver's license to cash a check or buy alcohol, but not to vote.

8) Only in America, could people demand the government investigate whether oil companies are gouging the public because the price of gas went up when the return on equity invested in a major U.S. oil company (Marathon Oil) is less than half of a company making tennis shoes (Nike).

9) Only in America, could the government collect more tax dollars from the people than any nation in recorded history, still spend a Trillion dollars more than it has per year - for total spending of $7-Million PER MINUTE, and complain that it doesn't have nearly enough money.

10) Only in America, could the rich people - who pay 86% of all income taxes - be accused of not paying their "fair share" by people who don't pay any income taxes at all.
