Attention Brothers – Council Going “Green”

The Council would like all brothers who have a computer and internet access to get their newsletters electronically. Brothers who do not have a computer will still be able to get a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to them.

The Council's website (www.kofc6100.org) has a link that contains the monthly newsletter from July 2009 to the latest newsletter in pdf format. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 203 newsletters were mailed, 3 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far one hundred five brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website or by mail. That leaves approximately two hundred members who haven't informed me how they want to receive the newsletter. Please send your preference to: Gregg Buckalew, P.O. Box 157, Tranquility, NJ 07879; e-mail address: buckalew@ptd.net; or telephone (908-852-9184).

Please Note: Business Meetings are now on the second Monday night of the month and will start at 8:00 PM. Arrive thirty minutes early and pray the rosary with us in the Reconciliation Area of the Church.

On the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. So she ran, and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Peter then came out with the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first; and stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, and went into the tomb; he saw the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, which had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not know the scripture, that Jesus must rise from the dead. (From the Holy Gospel, according to John, 20:1-9)

Grand Knight's Report

Note: Grand Knight John Mania will be on vacation during the months of January and February. Deputy Joe Hruby has written the following article. – editor.

Brothers,

To supplement our Bible study, we should be continually searching for publications to further clarify our understanding of our overall Christian obligations and Church traditions. Below is one such article that is short and to the point addressing the truly most important considerations for the period of Lent.

Why Lent?

Last year on Ash Wednesday, a kind woman from the congregation I serve asked me, “Why Lent? Why should Christians observe a season called Lent?” She was a longtime Christian, but had never before taken part in any Lenten observance, since most of her life she was a member of churches that did not “do” Lent. We had a great conversation.

The topic of Lent brings up the whole topic of the “church calendar” in general —the yearly cycle of seasons shared by most Christians throughout the world (Eastern Orthodox, Roman Catholic, and many Protestants). Now, the church calendar is not fixed in Scripture. Rather, it has developed in the common worship life of the Christian churches through the centuries.

So if it is not in the Bible, why use it?

It is helpful to remember first of all that Lent is just as much a part of the church calendar as are Christmas and Easter. Even many churches who do not use the rest of the church calendar celebrate Christmas and Easter. At Christmas we celebrate God’s incarnation in Jesus Christ to save us, and at Easter we celebrate the victory that comes by Jesus Christ’s resurrection.

The celebrations of Easter and Christmas convey the focal messages of the Christian faith. I am grateful for these seasons and celebrations that give me a strong reminder of how God is saving us in Jesus Christ. They provide a crucial focus for me as a disciple of Jesus, and put the whole church all on the same page. Still, why add Lent into the mix?

Thomas Aquinas, the 13th century Christian preacher and theologian, liked to say, omnis Christi actio nostra est instructio — “every action of Christ is for our instruction.” To grow into maturity as disciples of Jesus requires that we attend to the whole life of Jesus, not only to his birth and resurrection. Through Jesus’ whole life among us, God is working to save, to heal, to drive out demons, to teach us, to redeem creation.

The season of Lent is a season of preparation for Easter. During Lent we remember that important part of Jesus’ life when he dwelt fasting in the desert for forty days, and was tempted by the devil. Where Adam and Eve gave in to the serpent’s temptation, Jesus does not: even in self-denial, Jesus is victorious over temptation.

And late in Lent, during Holy Week and especially on Good Friday, we remember Jesus’ suffering and death to save us. The day is so much brighter when you have been through the darkness. To see the light of Jesus Christ’s resurrection on Easter, you have to acknowledge the suffering of his execution that precedes it.

In Lent, we are attentive to the parts of Jesus’ life — his self-control, his patience, his faithfulness even in suffering — that we hope to gain as his disciples. I have found a yearly observance of Lent helpful in this respect.

Lent is Not New Year's Resolutions Round Two

Many people give up something during Lent. But in our culture, fixated on self-improvement as we are, this can result in a big misunderstanding: we start (even if only in the back of our minds) to think of a Lenten fast in terms of a diet! But Lent is not New Year's Resolutions Round Two! Lent is not about us! Lent is about Jesus Christ.

In Lent we might give up something, do a specific prayer discipline, or change something to push ourselves spiritually. But the point is not self-improvement. The point is not even just self-denial. The point is to feel a little discomfort, a little pain, and by that to be constantly reminded of the love of our Savior Jesus Christ, who denied himself for our salvation.

If you observe Lent with prayer and fasting, use that prayer and fasting first of all to remember Jesus. If Lent is not about getting to know Jesus Christ better, it really is a waste of time.

Vivat Jesus,

Joseph Hruby, Deputy Grand Knight

P.S. Father McGivney's dream was that no family of a Knight should have to suffer financial hardship in the event of his death. The Knights of Columbus insurance program has and continues to be a pillar of strength. It is important that each member take the time to meet with our Field Agent so that he can explain the options that are available to you so that your family is protected. When our agent, Brother Joe Barrett calls, please set aside an hour to meet with him. Your family will be grateful that you did.

Chaplain's Corner

My Dear Brother Knights,

Remembering Heaven

Have you ever felt powerless? Other people are making decisions that directly affect your life, yet you have no say in the matter. Situations like this are unpleasant, confusing and painful, fraught with worry and anxiety. There's lack of communication, misunderstanding — someone says something, but the other party hears it completely different from what the first person intended. The light goes out, and it becomes difficult to see our way through the situation at hand. As the season of Lent intensifies, drawing nearer to the most sacred time of the liturgical year, we journey with the elect toward the font. The elect are counting down the days to the moment of baptism and full incorporation into this community, the body of Christ. The call to conversion deepens as much for us as it does for them. The last three Sundays of Lent, we celebrate the scrutinies, honestly facing sin, seeing it for what it is, supported by God's love and grace. These Sundays call us to look beyond just a laundry list of sins committed in daily life to examine the intentions, motives and patterns of behavior that keep us from being our best selves. The gift of sight is offered to everyone who is open and ready to receive it. The scrutinies shine light into the areas of darkness we'd rather just leave be; the journey inward can be frightening. If we were alone this might be daunting, but together, as God's people, we find strength, courage, love and support as we resolve to do better. For most people, I think, sin is not about deliberately setting out to do something destructive or evil.

Rather, sin presents itself as something good. We often fail to see the potential consequences of choices we are making; we think something is good, yet it turns out to cause pain. For example, someone might lie or cheat — not because they intentionally want to do what is wrong, but to cover up a failure, to make themselves look better, or to get ahead in some way. The scrutinies are designed to shine a spotlight on those areas of our lives most in need of healing and forgiveness.

For parishes with candidates and catechumens, the last three Sundays of Lent use the Gospels from John instead of Luke. In them we encounter the woman at the well (John 4) who honestly faces her inner demons; the man born blind (John 9), who goes from darkness to the radiance of sight; and finally (John 11), the raising of Lazarus, who dances in the freedom and joy of life restored. We stand with them, asking for their courage. We share the same intimate relationship with Jesus as they did. Together we encounter Jesus, and we are never the same. Is your parish celebrating the scrutinies? Careful preparation on the part of the presider, homilist, formation team and music directors, under the guidance of the parish liturgist, will serve to impact your entire assembly in ways we cannot predict.

This preparation ought to involve the entire parish with the elect. Be creative. The possibilities are endless. The following, taken from the introduction to the initiation rite, applies to all of us: The scrutinies, which are solemnly celebrated on Sundays and are reinforced by an exorcism, are rites for self-searching and repentance and have above all a spiritual purpose. The scrutinies are meant to uncover, and then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good. For the scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ, who is the way, the truth, and the life. These rites, therefore, should complete the conversion of the elect and deepen their resolve to hold fast to Christ and to carry out their decision to love God above all.” (#141, Rite of Christian Initiation)

The scrutinies are all about remembering heaven — where we came from and where we are going. In the meantime, heaven is all around us and within us. God’s grace is being poured out in every moment, enabling us to face our own demons courageously and honestly so we can move from the darkness into light, with new vision of the goodness that is ours and new freedom from the bondage of deadly sin.

Together with our elect, we are all called to trust anew in God’s love, to see what Moses saw in the burning bush, God present in the moment and in the lives of all those around us.

Sincerely, Yours in Christ, your chaplain

Father Joe

Council Drive for People with Developmental Disabilities

Brothers,

As we have done every Spring, the council will be participating in the Drive for People with Developmental Disabilities as part of the statewide Knights of Columbus Annual campaign for the year 2013. We will be out in force on the weekend of April 12th – 14th in front of some of the most frequented stores in Mount Olive, handing out Tootsie Rolls and collecting donations. Collection times are April 12th (12:00 - 6:00 pm), April 13th (9-5:00 pm) and April 14th (9:00 - 5:00 pm). Our collection locations are at SAMS of Mount Olive, Walmart of Mount Olive and the A&P at Naughtright Road.

As the chairman of this event, we are looking for volunteers. And, because of the huge scale of this event, we are calling on the entire Council to help out. There are several ways to participate; as a team captain, a caller, or as a collector. We need individuals to staff each location and collect moneys during 2 hour segments as well as Captains who can pick up moneys collected from each location and restock the next time slot collectors with additional Tootsie Rolls for handout.

Team captains are part of the planning team and will be responsible for the brothers working at a site. Callers will help contact brothers to staff the sites, and most importantly, collectors will stand in front of stores (in pairs) and collect donations in 2-hour shifts. From our experience in past drives, this is a great opportunity to spend time with a brother, friend, son, or daughter and at the same time, collect money to help those in our community that need the most help.

Urgent - please contact me to reserve your desired time slot and participation in this great fundraising cause.

Thank you,

Joe Hruby – Deputy Grand Knight

Council 6100 Goods & Services Marketplace Concept

- An idea has been presented to establish a Goods & Service marketplace within Council 6100.
- All Brothers are invited to participate. Here is how it will work:
 - Gather the key minimum information about your business or services that you may have to offer. This includes your name, phone number, email, brief description of services able to provide, the name of your business or if you are a sole proprietor, your license number (if applicable), your company website (if applicable), and a brief biography no more than 1 paragraph that is relevant to the services that you are offering.

- Send this information to Andrew Miller by: e-mail to andrew_k_miller@yahoo.com, snail mail to 16 Wildwood Avenue, Budd Lake, NJ 07828 or call at 917-327-7681.
 - This information will be entered into a database and will generate a list that will be shared with all Brothers at the next General Meeting and will be included on the Council's website and newsletter. In the future, we may consider publishing a directory. Note that the Council, St. Jude's and Andrew Miller will have no liability as to the quality of services provided.
 - Buyers should contact sellers directly. Please perform whatever due diligence you think is appropriate.
 - If you have a good or bad experience with a seller, please feel free to email or mail Andrew Miller with your input.
 - Currently, there will be no cost for this service.
- Let's work together and make this a success!

Insurance Message

Dear Brother Knights,

Different Life Stages, Changing Needs

You may have a long-range expense for which you are saving, such as college for your children. You may be concerned about a comfortable, worry-free retirement. You may want to protect your ability to earn a living. You may wonder if needing costly long-term care will deplete your hard-earned assets. You want to have something to leave for your wife, children or grandchildren.

At some point you may have had all of these needs on your mind. Over time, these thoughts make way for others as your needs evolve, your finances change and you get older. What is important to you at age 20, may not be at 30, or 45, or 65. What is the best way to be prepared for these changes before they happen?

One of the easiest ways to be financially ready for changes that come with different life stages is to meet annually with your professional Knights of Columbus agent, and address the needs that his analysis uncovers. This can help you be ready to face the financial challenges and issues on the road ahead.

During that annual visit, I'll take the time to review your needs, goals and budget. I'll update all beneficiaries on your policies and be sure your coverage meets your needs. I'll recommend a program of life insurance, long-term care, disability income insurance and guaranteed retirement products that will help you rest easy at night.

Whatever your needs, whatever your concerns, whatever your stage in life, I can help. Contact me today to learn more.

Father McGivney's dream was that no family of a member should suffer as a result of the loss of a loved one. Please allow me to help you so that we can fulfill his dream.

Joseph B. Barrett, Jr. PJK, Field Agent

Council Magazine Fundraiser

Brothers,

By now most of you have heard about the new magazine Fundraiser that Council 6100 is running in conjunction with St. Jude Parish. In these difficult economic times we have looked at many ways to minimize the impact on our community as we seek ways to raise funds. We think the Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or diccico-highfield@att.net

Editor's Notes:

Get More Involved – As we enter March 2013 the calendar shows that we are a Council with a hearty appetite for charitable and fraternal work. We have a wide range of activities, either in progress, or planned for the near future. Every activity needs chairmen and committee members. If you are not already as active as you should be, you can see where the opportunities are. Attend the next Business Meeting on Monday, March 12th at 8:00 pm to become more involved in the Council's good works.

Moving, Have a New E-Mail Address or Phone Number – If you are moving or have moved, changed your e-mail address or phone number, please notify me. It is important that we keep our records up to date.

Knights of Columbus on the Internet

For those Knights who like to visit cyberspace here are the following web sites on the Internet to get information about the Knights of Columbus. They are:

Supreme Council Website - (<http://www.kofc-supreme-council.org>) Site consists of various webpages telling about who we are, how to join, up-to-date news of the Order, information, history, photographs and more.

Knightsite - (<http://www.knightsite.com/kofc.htm>) Site consists of a directory of over 120 individual web pages: a web page for each U.S. State and Canadian Province, The Vatican website and the Supreme Council Website; how to pray the rosary and various other pages of interest to Brother Knights.

New Jersey State Council – (<http://www.njkofc.org>)

Council 6100 - has it's own web site. Among the things on the web page are the latest Council Newsletter, the Business Meeting highlights and the Council Calendar for the next two months. It can be found at kofc6100.org or as a link under the St. Jude Parish website: www.stjudeparish.org.

Other Interesting Websites:

The Paterson Diocese – <http://www.patersondiocese.org>

The Vatican – <http://vatican.va>

Eternal World Television Network – <http://www.ewtn.com>

NOTICE – As another means of relaying news about the Knights of Columbus, Council 6100, etc., it is requested that all knights having e-mail addresses provide them to me at my e-mail address listed here: (buckalew@ptd.net). Sometimes the telephone tree does not always work because members are not at home and do not have an answering machine. This way if any news has to get out fast, an urgent e-mail message can be sent to all those who have provided us with their e-mail addresses.

Business Meeting Highlights

The highlights of the Business Meeting of February 11th were as follows: (24 members present)

The following motion was presented to and voted upon by the Council during this Business Meeting:

1. Paul Przybylinski made a motion for the Council to authorize the September 2013 "1950's Rock & Roll Dinner & Entertainment Event" and provide $500.00 as seed money to run the event. The motion was seconded by Pete Longo, and after a lengthy discussion period, Paul decided to withdraw the motion and Pete withdrew the second. Paul will present a detailed expense plan at the March Officers Meeting and will the revized motion will be presented again at the March Business Meeting.

Because of a lack of interest Gerry Kaufold cancelled the "Beat the Winter Blues Beach Party" to be held on February 16th. As of February 4th (the night of the Officers Meeting) only 27 tickets were sold and Gerry had determined that the attendance would have to be at least 50 to break even.

On the Lighter Side

A government warning was recently issued that anyone traveling in icy conditions should take:

- Shovel, blankets or sleeping bag
- Extra clothing including scarf, hat and gloves
- 24 hours supply of food and drink
- De-icer
- 5 pounds of rock salt
- Torch or lantern with spare batteries
- Road flares and reflective triangles
- Tow rope
- 5 gallon gasoline can
- First aid kit
- Jump leads

I felt like a complete idiot on the bus this morning.

Today's Thought

See the good all around you, EVEN IF you have to SQUINT to do so.

Positive Quotes of the Day

Individual commitment to a group effort, that is what makes a team work, a company work, a society work, a civilization work. - Vince Lombardi (1913-1970) American Football Coach.

I never doubted not only that I would get out, but also that I would prevail in the end and turn the experience into the defining event of my life, which, in retrospect, I would not trade - Commenting on his 8 years as a prisoner of war in Vietnam, during which he was tortured over 20 times. - James Stockdale (1923-) American Naval Officer and Prisoner of War.

A happy life is one which is in accordance with its own nature. - Marcus Annaeus Seneca (60 BC - 37 AD) Roman Rhetorician and Writer.

To get the full value of joy you must have somebody to divide it with. - Mark Twain (b: Samuel Langhorne Clemens) (1835-1910) American Author and Humorist.

Other Council Activities

Bingo – Phil Graziano is the head of the Bingo Committee. The Council is still in dire need of a few ‘Good Knights’ to adequately staff our bingo teams. I hope the Council will help fill the voids now present on all bingo teams. If a few ‘Good Knights’ with nothing to do one Friday evening per month would volunteer their time between 6:30 PM and 11:30 PM (only five+ hours per month), we would be able to fully staff our four bingo teams. If you can not volunteer five hours per month, perhaps you could volunteer a few hours of your time per month. If you can volunteer in any way please call Phil at (908)979-3375 or e-mail: philgraz53@comcast.net.

Coffee N’ – Is held on the first Sunday of every month after the 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 Mass. Council 6100 will host the Coffee N’, in the months of January, April, and October. Brother Tom Rohe is the chairman to run the Coffee N’s but we will need to have a few brothers to step up and help Tom to run these Coffee N’s. The job entails shopping for the needs of the day, organizing the work schedule for the day and just getting the job done. If you can help in any way please let Tom know, (973-426-9394).

Campbell Soup Label Collection – Brother Victor Farina is collecting Campbell Soup labels as a donation to acquire books from the Library of Congress for the Blind and Disabled. Bring your labels to the next Business Meeting for Victor.

Father Dan’s Musical Concert Website – BIG NEWS – WE HAVE A WEBSITE – LOOK FOR FUTURE E-MAIL ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM SPLATTER CONCERTS – www.splatterconcerts.com. We’re also on Facebook and My Space under Splatter Concerts – our new name! It’s been a VERY rough year for us financially, and we don’t know how much longer we can continue without getting more people through the doors for the shows. It’s been a GREAT year musically, with Ian McLagan, Donna Jean Godchaux, Ana Popovic, Smokin’ Joe, Bill Kirchen, and The New Riders of the Purple Sage, but all of the above shows except Smokin' Joe have run in the red, so please come out if you want the music to continue! Shows at the Ukrainian American Cultural Center, 60 North Jefferson Road Whippany, NJ 07981. Food Available – Have dinner with us! Reverend Daniel D. Staniskis, phone (973-585-7175).
