Attention Brothers – Council Going “Green”

The Council would like all brothers who have a computer and internet access to get their newsletters electronically. Brothers who do not have a computer will still be able to get a hard copy of the newsletter mailed to them.

The Council's website (www.kofc6100.org) has a link that contains the monthly newsletter from July 2009 to the latest newsletter in pdf format. The newest newsletter will be posted on the website by the first weekend of the month. Last month 206 newsletters were mailed, 6 above the minimum needed for bulk mailing rates. Thus far one hundred five brothers have informed me that they will get their newsletter from our website or by mail. That leaves approximately two hundred members who haven't informed me how they want to receive the newsletter. Please send your preference to: Gregg Buckalew, P.O. Box 157, Tranquility, NJ 07879; e-mail address: buckalew@ptd.net; or telephone (908-852-9184).

Grand Knight's Report

Brothers,

In What Year Did Jesus Die?

When, after his Infancy Narrative, Luke begins the public life of Jesus, he provides some helpful historical data:

“In the 15th year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John the son of Zechariah in the desert.” (Lk 3:1-2)

Using what is known about these historical figures, scholars have determined that, estimating a public ministry that lasted one to three years, the date of Jesus’ death was sometime between 28-33A.D.

All four gospel writers agree that Jesus died on a Friday, which was either Passover itself (Matthew, Mark and Luke), or the day before Passover (John).

The only dates between 28 and 33 A.D. on which the Passover or the day before Passover could have occurred on a Friday are the years 30 or 33. Most scholars, calculating that Jesus began his ministry in the year 28, say that he died in the year 30.

In fact, in his book, Death of the Messiah, the late Scripture scholar Fr. Raymond Brown goes as far as to say April 7, 30 A.D.

So Pilate said to him, “Then you are a king?” Jesus answered, “You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.” Pilate said to him, “What is truth?” (Jn 18:37-38)

Pilate had no idea what Jesus meant when he spoke about his kingdom. Pilate could only think in this world’s terms. He says, “Then you are a king?” The meaning of Jesus’ response to that is: “That’s your terminology.”

Jesus then goes on to talk about his “kingship.” He has come to earth from above. He has seen the Father and heard the Father. That is why he is “the way, the truth, and the life.”

Call him “king” if you want, but that always has to be explained. Call his “truth” and you need no qualification. He has come from God, and he can testify to the truth.

What will Pilate do now? He will hedge: “What is truth?”

This isn’t a philosopher probing for truth. This is a Roman governor tossing off the question to end the conversation.

What is truth? It’s what we were made for, like a fish for water. It’s what God is,

and we were made for God.

There is a “pull” in us toward truth, toward God. It’s there, in us, much like an infant is drawn to its mother. It’s God’s gift.

Spend some time now experiencing this pull. Go with it, towards truth, towards God. It’s a natural.

Vivat Jesus,

John Mania, Grand Knight

P.S. Father McGivney’s dream was that no family of a Knight should have to suffer financial hardship in the event of his death. The Knights of Columbus insurance program has and continues to be a pillar of strength. It is important that each member take the time to meet with our Field Agent so that he can explain the options that are available to you so that your family is protected. When our agent, Brother Bob Marks calls, please set aside an hour to meet with him. Your family will be grateful that you did.

Chaplain’s Corner

My Dear Brother Knights,

Hitting the Jackpot

One of the fastest-growing enterprises in the country is the self storage business. Those fenced compounds with long rows of garage-type modules have sprouted ubiquitously, in city, town and country. It’s a multibillion-dollar industry, with more than 46,000 facilities nationwide, most of which are rented by people who have too much stuff and need a place to stash it. There are even provisions in some mail-order catalogs now for delivering your order straight to your storage cubicle.

These “stuff” camps are emblems of the ongoing hegemony of consumerism. Massive profits follow those who promote buying. We pay for it in burgeoning credit card debt, all kinds of pollution, undermined health, ugly strip malls and big box stores, and a way of living that is diminished in things that matter — solid, nourishing community, regular encounters with beauty, neighborliness and true adventures, for example.

We share a normal desire for the necessities, for food and shelter, and then for community, physical vigor, a stable family and healthy relationships. Yet now we add on a contrived, insatiable hankering for “stuff” and the money to buy it, with little regard for the true value of what is obtained and how it fits into the whole. The Gospel’s warning that it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter God’s reign expresses in one robust image the real drawbacks of hoarding excess wealth. It challenges our society’s pervasive notion that life’s ultimate triumph involves beating the odds to acquire a fortune with little effort or sweat.

Billie Bob Harrell Jr. won the lottery in 1997. His take was over $30 million. “Winning ... is the worst thing that ever happened to me,” he told his financial adviser a few days before he died. In 2003 Callie Rogers won a mere $3 million. She was quoted in TIME magazine in 2012: “My life is in shambles and hopefully now [the money] has all gone I can find some happiness. It’s brought me nothing but unhappiness. It’s ruined my life.” By 2009, Rogers was facing bankruptcy, and said she was ready to go back to poverty. William Post III won $16 million in 1988. “Everybody dreams of winning money but nobody realizes the nightmares that come out of the woodwork, or the problems,” he told The Washington Post in 1993. Within three months of receiving his first yearly payment, he was in debt, eventually going bankrupt, and receiving a jail sentence for taking potshots at a bill collector.

The opposite of wealth is not poverty, perhaps, but sufficiency. It means having enough. Sufficiency is not necessarily sacrifice and deprivation; it’s working out different ways of achieving satisfaction in our lives. Sufficiency is the concept that drives a simpler, sustainable way of life. We’ve all seen the bumper sticker that reads: “Live Simply That Others May Simply Live.” It’s a ringing call to a sufficient life. Such a life involves, in the words of Mennonite author Doris Janzen Longacre, “cultivating a gentle way of handling the Earth, versatility in the face of shortage, inner provision for contentment and more than all that, commitment to live justly in our world.” A sufficient life means being a bright, creative part of the solution rather than one more tired cog in the dreadful turning wheels of the problem.

It’s healthy as well. Medical experts now estimate that 80 percent of diseases are directly linked to frantic living. Sufficiency involves the virtues of thrift and frugality. It comes through innovation and creativity. It looks something like this: A friend, Susan, regularly reuses her bath- and dish-water, hauling it out to the garden for her vegetables. She gets exercise and cuts down on her water bill, while at the same time deriving a quiet satisfaction from this way of living lightly on the planet. A sufficient life might involve frequenting thrift shops to buy clothing, giving time or handcrafted items to others in lieu of purchased holiday gifts, or refusing to travel far from home on vacation, opting instead to explore your own state. Simple living can involve a kind of elected neediness and a radical dependency that invariably strengthens our communities.

Our culture directs us to engineer our total security, to surround ourselves with things and wealth so that we’re in no way ever dependent on anyone else. However, our spiritual traditions tell us that if we protect ourselves from insecurity, from vulnerability, we in turn cut ourselves off both from the Source and from the community we need in order to be fully realized and compassionate humans.

“The real meaning of a simple life,” says Franciscan Fr. Richard Rohr, “is a life of radical dependency, so that I can’t arrange my life in such a way that I don’t need you.” Accumulating or hoarding makes no sense when you know you absolutely need other people for your life to continue and flourish. Less really is more.

Sincerely, Yours in Christ, your chaplain

Father Joe

Rev. Joseph Orlandi

NJ State Squires

Army Tank Pull 2013

As proud Americans, we recognize the selfless service and ultimate sacrifices of our nation's Armed Forces. We promise to share their plight with a caring community. Because of their needs, the NJ State Squires has formed a team of 20 squires to be a part of Army Tank Pull 2013. The idea is simple; the team must pull an 80,000 pound tank to raise money through sponsorships. It is an annual event run by the State Knights of Columbus to raise money and awareness for the Wounded Warriors Project, whose purpose is:

- To raise awareness and enlist the public's aid for the needs of injured service members.
- To help injured service members get aid and assist each other.
- To provide unique, diverse programs and services to meet the needs of injured service members.

We need to raise as much money as possible for this worthy cause. All donations must be in by June 1st. Checks should be made out to the Squires Circle # 2192 send to: Tank Pull, 23 Foothill Ave, Budd Lake NJ 07828. For more information please contact Tom Rohe at trohekofc@gmail.net. Please visit the website: www.tankpullkofc.org for pictures and video of past events.

Council 6100 Goods & Services Marketplace Concept

- An idea has been presented to establish a Goods & Service marketplace within Council 6100.
- All Brothers are invited to participate. Here is how it will work:
 - Gather the key minimum information about your business or services that you may have to offer. This includes your name, phone number, email, brief description of services able to provide, the name of your business or if you are a sole proprietor, your license number (if applicable), your company website (if applicable), and a brief biography no more than 1 paragraph that is relevant to the services that you are offering.
 - Send this information to Andrew Miller by: e-mail to andrew_k_miller@yahoo.com, snail mail to 16 Wildwood Avenue, Budd Lake, NJ 07828 or call at 917-327-7681.
 - This information will be entered into a database and will generate a list that will be shared with all Brothers at the next General Meeting and will be included on the Council's website and newsletter. In the future, we may consider publishing a directory. Note that the Council, St. Jude's and Andrew Miller will have no liability as to the quality of services provided.
 - Buyers should contact sellers directly. Please perform whatever due diligence you think is appropriate.
 - If you have a good or bad experience with a seller, please feel free to email or mail Andrew Miller with your input.
 - Currently, there will be no cost for this service.
- Let's work together and make this a success!

Insurance Message

Dear Brother Knights,

A Worthless Piece of Paper

One of my fellow field agents recently called on a Brother Knight who had allowed his Knights of Columbus insurance policy to lapse by not paying his premiums. This field agent simply called to ask if he would please return the lapsed policy. Because the member considered the policy to be worthless now, he asked the agent why he wanted it back.

The field agent replied that when the member died, he wanted to avoid the unpleasant task of explaining to his widow and children that the policy was worthless. He wanted to avoid the excitement the widow would feel when she found what she thought was a life insurance policy, only to become further depressed when she found it was useless and belonged in the wastebasket. Fortunately, this story has a happy ending. The member in question was able to conserve this valuable protection for his loved ones by reinstating his insurance.

Call me today to discuss your insurance needs. Let's not have any surprises for your widow.

Please Note: As of March 31, 2013 Joe Barrett ceased being our Field Agent. Bob Marks will be took his positon. Bob has said he will contact each member in the near future. His contact info will follow in next month's newsletter. (hopefully)

Council Magazine Fundraiser

Brothers,

By now most of you have heard about the new magazine Fundraiser that Council 6100 is running in conjunction with St. Jude Parish. In these difficult economic times we have looked at many ways to minimize the impact on our community as we seek ways to raise funds. We think the Magazine Fundraiser is a very positive way to move forward quickly without asking anyone to spend one additional penny over what you may be currently spending.

The plan makes it is easy to participate. If you, your family or friends are already buying any magazines, by just renewing them through our program, 40% of the total cost will be returned to the Council.

All of this can be done on the internet without any paperwork. Just enter www.qsp.com/store/index.aspx and you will enter the QSP Magazine Store that contains over 700 of today's most popular magazines at prices that are most often lower than the publishers' offers. You can also enter through our website: www.kofc6100.org and clicking on the Magazine Program listed on our Home Page.

Also, you do not have to wait for your current subscriptions to expire. Just simply mark the order as a renewal and copy your name exactly as it appears on your current issues and your subscriptions will be automatically extended. Of course, you can purchase new subscriptions too!

Remember 40% of your total cost will be returned to the Council.

The success of this program relies on offering this opportunity to as many people as possible. Why not ask your family and friends to help, or consider asking your doctor or dentist who normally have tons of magazines. Tell them it will not cost them any additional money to be part of this worthy effort. Brother who do not have the opportunity to help with other fundraisers can easily help by simply forwarding this email to their friends.

This program is ongoing all year and you can renew your subscriptions at any time. Also, we will be sending email reminders periodically, so be on the lookout for them!

Thank you for your continued support. If you have any questions, you can contact the program chairman, Ernie DiCicco, or myself at dteller@optonline.net or dicicco-highfield@att.net

Vivat Jesus,

Dave Teller, Past Grand Knight

On the Lighter Side

Hi Lord

Hi Lord, it's me. We're getting older and some things are not great here. Many of us have tried to lead good lives and to change things, but energy, healthcare, food costs - and even educational costs - are too high. Jobs are hard to find for many good people, and the future doesn't look good for our families. Our political world is out of control. Values have changed. Some people have taken you out of our schools, government, veteran's funerals, and even Christmas.

So, Lord, I'm asking you to come back and re-bless America. We really need you and your strength and guidance! As you know, there are more of us who want you than those who don't!

Thank You Lord, I Love you.

If you agree, send it on to as many people as possible - if not just delete.

Only you & the Lord will know. Talk to Him! Prayer changes things!
"Life without God is like an unsharpened pencil - it has no point." Amen.

Other Council Activities

Bingo – Phil Graziano is the head of the Bingo Committee. The Council is still in dire need of a few 'Good Knights' to adequately staff our bingo teams. I hope the Council will help fill the voids now present on all bingo teams. If a few 'Good Knights' with nothing to do one Friday evening per month would volunteer their time between 6:30 PM and 11:30 PM (only five+ hours per month), we would be able to fully staff our four bingo teams. If you can not volunteer five hours per month, perhaps you could volunteer a few hours of your time per month. If you can volunteer in any way please call Phil at (908)979-3375 or e-mail: philgraz53@comcast.net.
